By S. R. PADDOCK

We have learned that there were 6 cases of drunken driving in this area recently. The Arlington Heights police department is handing out pamphlets calling attention to the penalties for persons driving cars while intoxicated.

We hope that when Judge Neumann returns from Florida he will inflict upon drunken drivers the punishment that is mentioned in those circulars.

Arlington Heights has a drunkometer. There should be no qualms on the part of our judge or the police department about going the limit on those penalties, even if it means sending violators to jail from 90 days to two years.

The circular says that on the second offense the judge has no other course. First offense requires revocation of drivers license for at least a year and violator goes to jail for two days to one year or pays a fine of $100 to $1,000 or both. It is time all judges get tough.

While participating in a panel at Northwestern university recently, we heard Mrs. Frances Baldwin, of the League of Women Voters of Oak Park, give a valuation of good citizenship that may surprise some of our readers who do not enjoy being told the truth.

The panel members admitted that many an educated person has fallen down in good citizenship and that he is often a snob, absorbed in higher cultural levels and failing to provide dynamic leadership for his community.

Mrs. Baldwin said there are four kinds of citizens in the suburbs:

"1. The indifferent citizen or 'give me' who is not interested in anyone else and concerned only with community affairs that affect him personally.

"2. The unimaginative citizen who tells of never having missed an election but cannot conceive of doing anything more for his community.

"3. The destructive citizen who hides behind the flag of patriotism in order to hang on to his personal prejudices and privileged citizenship. He wants to keep the nation the way he thinks it is and adapts that concept to his local community as well. For him, democracy is a static thing.

"4. The creative citizen thinks faith is an action word and acts upon that faith. They believe in a dynamic kind of democracy that stays in motion and provides the leadership which is the leaven through which democracy can realize its ideals."

We are going to name our present pet peeve—"Double Disk Brakes." The same commercial, over and over again, day after day, reminds us of advertising 40 years ago when the businessman seldom took time to change his advertisement.

WMAQ has been our early morning favorite station for years, but no more can we stand that "Detroit calling."

Joe Meek, speaking at the ladies night dinner of Arlington Heights Chamber of Commerce painted a rather dismal picture for the small businessman last Thursday night.

We wish there had been more small businessmen to hear him. It was lethargy that may have kept many of them away that evening and that same lethargy on the part of the same people, Meek says, will put many of them out of business in the next few years.

Pressure groups are spending a lot of time and money at Springfield and Washington concocting special "innocent" looking legislation for their own benefit, while many businessmen are "too busy" to spend money or time to protect their own rights.

If the law-enacting bodies fall for some of those innocent-looking bills, it will mean greater government control than even President Roosevelt ever dreamed of.

Arlington Heights high school wrestling team demonstrated Friday night that high school boys can put on as good a show as television actors. The highlights of the professional wrestling stage were realistically duplicated.

The wrestler that took the terrific punishment and was thrown out of the ring when a young lady smashed a chair over his head, admitted to a reporter that it didn't hurt at all, but it took two weeks practice to get realism in the act.

We had a rather embarrassing job this week. At the suggestion of a member of the Arlington Heights village board, we had to tell our reporter that after six years she could no longer occupy a seat with the mighty and should find a chair somewhere with the audience.

We tried to ease the blow a bit by assuring her that it was all in the lifetime of a reporter and that the happy family arrangement that has existed through the years was unusual. We also assured her that now she could throw friendship out of the window and could call a spade a spade. She replied, "I would not dare do that. They are really nice fellows and are just trying to do a good civic job without the aid of a woman."

PTA mothers renew reflective tape as an additional safeguard to the child who rides his bicycle after dark as Arlington Heights police give annual spring safety check to bicycles of Arlington Heights school pupils. Bicycles were checked for faulty brakes, loose wheels, non-operating lights, loose or bent forks and loose handle grips. The inspections were held at the Junior high school, Dryden, North, South and Ridge schools last week. At North school, pictured, Mesdames E. R. Glover, R. A. La Croix, Cid Crockett, E. Goble and James Moore help with the inspection.

Board Members Differ on Appointment of Officers

Bill Spomer To Serve On High School Board

William H. Spomer, 222 S. Walnut, Arlington Heights, has been appointed to the Arlington Heights high school board of education to replace Mrs. Richard Morrow, 622 Mayfair, serving until the next regular election in April, 1956.

Mrs. Morrow, who has been a member of the board for the past 8 years, has moved to Waukegan where Mr. Morrow is the owner of the Morrow Company, appliance manufacturers. During Mrs. Morrow's residence in Arlington Heights and service on the board of education, her 3 children, Mary, Dick and Blyth, graduated from the Arlington Heights high school. In accepting her resignation, the board expressed appreciation for her faithful service during the past years of expansion of the high school and regret at losing one of its more experienced and valued members.

Spomer occupies the position of comptroller of the Pure Oil company in Chicago, is a member of the financial and accounting committee of the American Petroleum Institute, and a member of the Chicago Control of the Controllers Institute of America. He has been a member of the Arlington Heights Park District board for 8 years and has served as its president. He is a graduate of the University of Nebraska, is married and has 2 children attending school in Arlington Heights.

Other business transacted by the board at its regular May meeting Monday included the election of Mrs. Robert Fontaine as secretary replacing Mrs. Morrow, the consideration of a progress report from Nicol and Nicol, architects for the addition of the high school to be started this summer, and approval of plans to offer for sale on bids the bonds for the addition which were approved by the voters in February.

13 Wrecks On Weekend; Warns Of Hazards On Crowded Summer Roads

With warmer weather, the annual auto slaughter on area streets and highways has started.

So warned John Heintz, owner of Arlington Body and Fender shop, Arlington Heights, who reported that last weekend his trucks towed in 13 wrecks from this area.

"People haven't been out," explained Heintz, "and so when they do get on the highways, they become careless. The results are often gruesome."

He knows whereof he speaks. Everyday, wrecks are hauled into his Campbell st. garage, most of them battered almost beyond recognition, many of them stained with blood.

"During these warm months, traffic is heavier, particularly in Cook and Lake counties," said Heintz. "It is important that people be more cautious."

He said drinking had been the chief factor in most of the 13 wrecks he collected this weekend.

"Every day I see terrible examples of why it doesn't pay to drink and drive."

Heintz also said he expected the widened Campbell st. to become a safety hazard at Chestnut ave., where Campbell sharply narrows. He pointed out that a tree next to offices of Paddock Publications is sure to be scene of some future accident.

Phones Vs. Papers

One of the quickest ways to observe the rapidly increasing population in Arlington Heights, Mount Prospect, Palatine, Wheeling and Rolling Meadows, is to note the additional pages in the telephone directories being distributed this week.

Last June, just 11 months ago, the index of subscribers numbered 123 pages. The new book contains 148 pages, or approximately 2,500 more subscribers. Going a step further this could mean an approximate increase in population for the area of 7,500.

Pages of the classified section numbered 246 last June. The new book contains 288 pages. This growth is similar to that of Paddock Publications which has increased 3,035 copies the past year.

Many Problems Force New Board To Burn Midnight Oil

House moving, sewer connections and escrow funds for public improvements were only a few of the things which kept the Arlington Heights village board in session until 1:15 a.m. Wednesday.

The adjourned meeting began at 8 p.m. Tuesday, with a protest by property owners in the 500 and 600 block on S. Mitchell regarding the proposed connection of storm and sanitary sewers to the Mitchell ave. outlet. Permission for a temporary connection was granted by the board last week. Residents in that area claimed such a connection would result in flooded basements as the Mitchell ave. sewer was not big enough to carry this additional load.

THE CONNECTION was requested by William Trude, who plans to erect 40 homes on Walnut ave., immediately in back of this Mitchell ave. property. After much discussion the board finally agreed to allow Trude to connect only the sanitary sewer to the Rockwell sewer which is a bigger outlet than the Mitchell sewer. He will direct the storm water to the north of his property where it will be ponded until such time as proper provisions for its disposal can be made. Trustee Robert Bishop passed his vote on the motion.

Permission was granted to Ervin Selof to move the house at 15 N. State to S. Walnut ave., south of Central rd. The proposed remodeling of the building meets with the village building code and plans and specifications were approved by the architectural committee and planning commission.

The board requested that Selof post a completion bond in the amount of $2,000 to assure the building will be remodeled according to plans. Trustee Bishop voted no on the moving of the house as he felt the board should give more consideration to old houses being moved into undeveloped areas. An ordinance spelling out conditions regarding the moving of homes has been prepared and will be considered by the board at its next meeting.

INTERPRETATION of a village ordinance requiring subdivision developers to put up in escrow with the village the cost of all public improvements, namely: sewer, water, street, sidewalk, curb and gutter, took up nearly 2 hours of the board's time.

Mr. Faye, who proposes to develop 24 lots on Haddow ave., between Frederick and Oakton, requested permission to begin underground improvements at this time. The board had previously requested Faye to put the necessary money, plus 15 per cent to take care of any damage which might result during construction, in escrow with the village.

He informed the board at that time he was getting VA loans on the homes and the VA required he put up 1½ times the amount of the public improvements in escrow with them. In order to prevent a double output of money for the same purpose Faye agreed to get the VA to include the village as part of this escrow and village attorney Hugo J. Thal was requested to draw up the necessary contract.

The contract was presented to the board Tuesday but was not completed inasmuch as the bank, which would be holding the escrow money, did not sign it. Faye said the bank would not sign until such monies were actually in escrow.

THIS PUT THE board right back where it started several months ago. After lengthy discussion the board decided to authorize the execution of the contract with the understanding the money be deposited as soon as possible under the proposed schedule, which set aside a certain portion from each home sold to pay for the public improvements. In addition the board requested Faye to furnish the village with a completion bond for the project and to tender waivers of loans as the work progressed.

Trustees Bishop and Richard Bronwell voted no on this motion, which was made by Trustee Forrest Davis. They felt it would set a precedent and it would not have any bearing on decisions he made in the future on similar situations.

6 Local Boys Get Short Jail Terms

In addition to probation of 2 to 4 years, 5 Palatine and 1 Arlington Heights boy were given various jail sentences by Judge Austin Tuesday.

One boy escaped with only probation. Three of the boys who are students at Palatine high school will be allowed to finish the school year and begin their jail sentences June 13.

The juveniles were released on 2 years' probation, the court taking the stand that they had been confined for some time under the direction of the family court. Two of the boys received 30 days; 3, 60 days; 1, 5 months. The adult was given 20 days and 2 years on probation. The judge based his sentence on the crimes committed by the individual boys.

The boys on trial were in the courtroom several hours and heard individuals given penitentiary sentences who had committed crimes no worse than they had done. The state law considers burglary a serious crime and the penalty could be prison for life.

The boy receiving 5 months had spent some time in a Nazi camp in Germany.

Village Wide Rubbish Collection Next Week

Residents will have this weekend to clean up the rubbish piles in their back yards and get it together for the annual spring rubbish collection in Arlington Heights.

The free collections will be made on the south side of the tracks May 16 and 17 and on the north side of the tracks May 18, 19 and 20. Laseke disposal service has been hired by the village to do the job.

All rubbish, which includes bottles and tin cans, must be put in containers and placed on the curb. No garbage, building material, old furniture or tree trimmings will be collected.

Authorize Special Census For Arlington

A special census of Arlington Heights was authorized by the village board Tuesday night.

Although the village had one taken just 2 years ago it was the general consensus of the board the population had increased enough to warrant another census at this time. It will cost approximately $2,500, and has been approved by the department of census.

One of the main reasons for taking the new census is to increase the village's proportion of state gas tax funds. The law provides approximately $5 per head a year in gas tax monies.

Approve Annexation Of Park Manor

Annexation of Arlington Heights Park Manor to the village of Arlington Heights was approved Saturday by a vote of 16-12. The number of registered voters was less than 30.

The subdivision comprises 16 blocks and is located east of Laurinwood, and lies between Fairview and Central rd. and Dryden and Arthur aves. Lots are 50 feet wide.

Older residents appeared to favor the annexation as a protection against cheap type homes.

Concert Of Sacred Music At St. Peter Church

The adult and children's choirs of Arlington Heights St. Peter Lutheran church, under the direction of Donald Hermann, will present their annual spring concert of sacred music Sunday, at 4 p.m., in the church. The general public is invited.

Compromise: To Permit Gas Station

Hugo J. Thal, village attorney, was authorized by the Arlington Heights village board Tuesday night to compromise in the zoning suit regarding the rezoning of land at State rd. and Central, to permit the erection of a gas station.

The board agreed to allow a certain portion of the property to be used for a gas station. Disposition of the remainder of the tract in question will not be made at this time. The court has offered a delay of 90 to 120 days before it will make a decision on the matter. This will allow the board to determine the highest and best use for the land. At present it is being considered for multiple dwelling units or a possible medical center.

A writ of mandamus was filed against the village in September, 1953, by Leo N. Orris, who was refused permission to have his property rezoned from residential to business to allow the erection of a Shell service station on the site. Rezoning of the property was denied in March, 1953, when it was found by the zoning board of appeals the rezoning would not be in the best interest of the village.

Orris claimed he purchased the property when it was classified as commercial. He told the zoning board he had never been advised of the rezoning and said he had paid taxes faithfully on the property in order to have a clean slate when the right business opportunity to improve it came his way.

Rehfeldt Named To Board Of Fire, Police Commission

President Albert W. Goedke recommended appointments of village officers and employees at the Tuesday night meeting of the Arlington Heights village board. The board concurred on all the recommendations, though several appointments did not have their unanimous support. F. Robert Buechner, village manager, concurred with all but 2 of the appointments.

Charles Rehfeldt, former village trustee who resigned from that position last November, was appointed a member of the board of fire and police commission. He filled the vacancy on the board created by the resignation of Fred J. Scheuner, who has served as secretary of the board since its creation several years ago.

Trustees Richard Bronwell and Robert Bishop both voted no on the appointment.

Fred Hammer Jr. was reappointed as building commissioner.

CARL H. SKOOG, chief of police, was reappointed to that position by a 5-1 vote, with Trustee Bronwell casting the negative vote.

All members concurred on the reappointments of Elroy Winkelman as fire chief, and John Firnbach and Edward Guenther as radio operators.

William Meyer Jr., village treasurer and collector, was reappointed to that position by a 4-2 vote. Trustees Bishop and Bronwell voted no and manager Buechner did not recommend the appointment.

William Luehring was reappointed as commissioner of public works, as was Charles O'Hagan as village inspector and Marian Bloecker as health officer.

Hugo J. Thal was again appointed as village attorney by a vote of 5 members. Trustee Bronwell passed his vote.

Building custodian Louis Miller was reappointed by a 4-2 vote, with Trustees Bishop and Bronwell casting the negative votes. Manager Buechner did not recommend the appointment.

ONE OTHER resignation was accepted by the board Tuesday. A letter from Charles H. Wilson, who has served as a member of the zoning commission, was read, which stated his reasons for resigning as a member of that group. His resignation was regretfully accepted by the board.

Trustee Forrest Davis asked that new members of the board be supplied with copies of the report regarding improvements to the water works. The proposed improvements amount to $150,000 and Davis feels this work might better be done with revenue bonds over a period of years, rather than from funds accumulated through high water rates.

Traffic Lights No Protection At Rts. 53, 12

The thud of colliding autos, the groan of steel on steel, the screams of injured victims—these are familiar sounds to residents living near the intersection of route 53 and Rand rd.

A new tragedy—collision of two trucks Tuesday shortly before dawn—prompted one home-owner, Edward Van Steenberg, to protest hazards at the intersection.

Injured in the Tuesday crash was E. W. Voigt of Prairie View, taken to Resurrection hospital, where he is still in critical condition.

The other truck driver, Kenneth Coble of Palatra, Fla., escaped injury.

Coble was driving northwest on 12, and Voigt was going south on 53. A custard stand on the northeast corner of the intersection apparently obstructed both drivers' view.

Arlington Fender and Body shop said it took 7 hours to clear the wreckage.

"Something must be done," declared Van Steenberg, who recalled a long trail of accidents and killings which have plagued the intersection in spite of traffic lights.

Billboards on the southwest corner make it almost impossible for northbound drivers to see what is coming from the notrheast. Protests made during the last 5 or 6 years at this obstruction have gone unheeded despite heavy traffic tolls.

Inadequate warning signs are poorly placed and often so dirty they are unreadable.

Cars and trucks approaching from the north at high speeds have literally no chance. A hill obstructs view of the intersection, and warning signs are placed over the crest.

Van Steenberg said some kind of limitation on speed is necessary if any kind of safety record can be maintained at the crossroads. (FP

SUMMER HEAT

It'll be here before you know it!

Summer heat is bad enough—but it's murder in the kitchen!

And right now you can do something about it . . . at a real savings, too.

How? By taking advantage of our new money-saving installation plan on a new electric range. Impartial research tests prove that the new electric ranges leave your kitchen up to 10 degrees cooler than flame-type stoves.

Now, our new installation plan is available to anyone in the area we serve who lives in a 1, 2, or 3-family house without sufficient wiring for big appliances like an electric range.

It applies also to electric dryers, water heaters or air conditioners requiring 240-volt electric service.

How much can you save? It varies according to location and present wiring. But your electrical appliance dealer can tell you exactly in dollars and cents. Since we share the installation cost with you, we will arrange easy monthly payments on your share.

What to do: Check your appliance dealer. He knows about our plan, wants you to save money with it.

Check the advantages of our new wiring installation plan to customers who live in a 1, 2, or 3-family building with insufficient wiring.

- √ You can save real money on installation of a new electric range, dryer, water heater, or air conditioner.
- √ Your present appliances work better—your new wiring gives you a better TV picture, faster toast—even brighter lights.
- √ You're all set for the future—your new 240-volt wiring lets you add any new appliances you want, quickly and cheaply.

Normennes Concert To Benefit School For Retarded Children

Tickets for a forthcoming choral concert by the well-known Normennes Singing society are being distributed by Mrs. Raymond A. Till and Mrs. Henry F. Devinger.

The program will be held May 22 at 4 p.m. in Maine township high school auditorium as a benefit performance for the Park Ridge Aid for Retarded Children. This organization operates a school, housed at present in two Park Ridge churches, to teach mentally handicapped children and young people living in this northwest vicinity.

The school, known as the William Frederick, has been in operation since the fall of 1953. It originally admitted only pre-teen age trainable youngsters but later established an older group as a sheltered workshop project. The Frederick school is in session 5 mornings a week and is under the supervision of accredited instructors. Aside from the 2 children attending from Mount Prospect, the neighboring towns of Des Plaines, Park Ridge, Niles and Edison Park are represented in William Frederick classes.

Every effort is being made by PRARC to provide schooling for trainable children, plus understanding of their problems so that these youngsters may become a "part of our community" not "apart from our community." Tuition is kept as low as possible and thanks to the generosity of civic clubs and individual contributions made, PRARC and William Frederick feel as if they have the whole-hearted support of the communities. Constant financial assistance is needed as the continued growth of the school points up the need for a building of its own plus the need for establishment of a full school day program.

Last year the Normennes Singing society donated its time and services to present a concert at Maine township. This year, the society is again presenting a program, with the entire proceeds going to William Frederick school. Mrs. Till, CLearbrook 3-5404, and Mrs. Devinger, VAnderbilt 4-1997, can be contacted for tickets.

Drive For Building Permits Pays Off

Another step in the drive to halt the practice of building homes without county building permits was taken last week.

Charles F. Chaplin, the chairman of the county board's building and zoning committee, and county school superintendent Noble Puffer agreed to share information of such violations that comes to their offices.

The schools are concerned because buildings that go up without permits escape being placed on the tax rolls so that the schools lose revenue.

Chaplin said investigations being conducted by local school boards cost in the aggregate more than $100,000. Investigators have been turning over to County Assessor Frank C. Keenan their findings as to buildings that are not on the tax rolls. This information will now go to Chaplin as well. Chaplin will check to see if the buildings were erected without building permits.

"In many cases," Chaplin commented, "I'm sure we'll find that a building that is not on the tax rolls was put up without a permit."

The drive to enforce the building permit requirement has already paid off in increased applications for the permits, Chaplin contended.

He pointed out that in April of 1954 $18,152.50 in permit fees was collected. In April, 1955, fees totaled $49,519.90. This is the largest amount ever collected in a month.

Favorites for Flavor

The cares of a home and children don't deter Mrs. Elmer M. Hanson from preparing homemade baked goods for her family of six.

This mother of four energetic boys not only makes all the cakes, pies and coffee cakes for her family but bakes bread twice a week as well.

She has chosen one of her favorite coffee cake recipies to share with us this week.

Relatively simple to prepare, this coffee cake is different and delicious. All ingredients for the dough, including crumbled yeast, are combined in 1 bowl and beaten well. The batter is then placed in the refrigerator overnight.

The following morning the dough is divided in half, for this recipe makes 2 coffee cakes. It is rolled out, sprinkled with cinnamon and sugar, chopped nuts and dates.

The dough is rolled like a jelly roll, set in awarm place to rise, then baked. While still warm it is frosted with a powdered sugar icing.

This light-textured coffee cake with its tasty filling will tempt many a lazy morning appetite. And the recipe is versatile, too, as prunes or raisins may be substituted for the dates.

The good cook who has given us this recipe has been baking it for years and it will soon become a favorite with your family, too.

The Hansons live at 114 N. Pine, Mt. Prospect. Their 4 sons are Robert, 13, James, 10, Paul, 6, and Timothy, 4.

Mrs. Hanson is a member of the Women's Missionary society of the Arlington Heights Evangelical Free church. She is in charge of arrangements for the church's annual mother-daughter banquet.

Ice Box Coffee Cake

1 cup shortening
2 eggs
1 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons sugar
1 cup milk
3 cups flour
1 cup graham cracker crumbs
1 cake yeast (crumbled with fingers)

Combine all ingredients in bowl and mix well. Place in regrigerator overnight.

In the morning divide dough in two and roll one-half inch thick. Spread dough generously with butter.

Filling

1 cup sugar
1 tablespoon cinnamon
1 cup chopped nuts
1 package dates, chopped

Combine cinnamon and sugar and sprinkle over dough. Sprinkle chopped nuts and dates over dough.

Roll like a jelly roll. Moisten edges and seal to prevent filling from seeping out. Let rise for two hours or more.

Bake 50 to 60 minutes in 325 degree oven.

Frost while warm with an icing of powdered sugar and water flavored with vanilla. Makes two coffee cakes.

Study Committee Formed To Advise Residents On Water Agency Proposal

Impending water shortages, floods and dangers of inadequate sewage disposal in suburbs are the targets of a newly-organizzed Metropolitan Area Study committee.

Organized to stimulate interest in a metropolitan service agency, the group is composed of business and civic leaders from the Chicagoland area.

The metropolitan proposal—dealing with water, sanitation, drainage and the building of a port—is the result of months of study by Gov. Stratton's committee on Metropolitan Water and Sanitation.

The study committee has been formed to acquaint residents of this area what the proposed plan is, how it would operate and how it would affect present existing facilities in the broad critical area.

Serving on the committee is Frank C. Rathje of Roselle.

Girl Scout News

Between Mother's day projects and the end of the school year activities, girl scouts have been a busy lot.

Troop 6 enjoyed a trip to see Super Circus. The program was fun and an added thrill was the ride in on a streamlined double decker train. In addition to the trip the girls have been busy in the preparations for a Mother's day tea. The girls divided into committees to do the planning and the work. The tea was held at the field house Tuesday afternoon.

Out-of-door activities have kept troop 23 busy these last 2 Saturdays. They went to Elk Grove on a wildflower hike first and the following Saturday they went to Camp Pine for a cook-out. Along with these trips the girls are working on homemaking and skating badges.

Eighteen of the brownies of troop 260 went on a cook-out May 3 at Elk Grove. They had a grand time with tin can cookery. The girls had made clay flower pots and planted them for Mother's day gifts. Mrs. Shirley Page, Mrs. Fern Anderson, and Mrs. Edna Gammill accompanied the girls on the cook-out.

Scouts of troop 19 are sorry to have Carol Huskey ill. Carol is at Resurrection hospital.

The Mother's day tea for troop 269 was held at Ridge school. At that time the girls were given their second year pins.

Mrs. Laura Burnett, Mrs. Eleanor Lipps and Mrs. Ann Swarthout accompanied scouts of troop 24 on an overnight at the Des Plaines house last Friday and Saturday.

We are looking forward, with happy anticipation, to serving Arlington Heights with our Modern Drug Shop.

From The Police Blotter...

A 19 month old boy, Tim Downs, was struck by a painter's truck as it backed out of the driveway at 600 Lynden lane last Thursday. The child was pushing his tricycle and was apparently hit by a ladder sticking out of the back end of the truck.

He suffered abrasions on the left leg and was treated by Dr. Herman Carr. Driver of the auto was Herbert Weimar, 931 Ashland, Evanston.

Clifford Page, 346 S. Newbury reported his daughter's bike had a tire slashed while it was parked at the Junior high school.

Dr. Laufer, 803 N. Belmont, informed police that several windows in his green house had been broken and that someone was dumping rubbish on his property. Police are tracing one of the names found among the litter.

Vandalism to porch screens and flowers was reported this week by Mrs. Edward Cherwin, 626 Newbury place.

Firemen answered a call to put out a blaze in a box car parked on the railroad siding across from Rapp's service station. Hay on the floor of the car was burning.

Several parties were booked for driving under the influence of liquor and doing damage to public property. Police also arrested several hot rodders speeding in the area of the high school.

Losing Proposition

According to The Sporting News, the first visit of the Pirates to the New York Polo Grounds this season was a financial flop. The Pirates played one game with the Giants, with only 2,900 fans out. A second contest was rained out. Pittsburgh got $800 for that first date, but expenses for transportation, hotel and meals came to better than $3,000.

Junior High Pupils Vie For Awards In Play Day Events

Arlington Heights Junior high school play days were held Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. These annual events, which include both boys and girls, are the culminating activities of the spring physical education and sports program. The students attach great importance to these days and put in a great deal of practice and planning in preparation for the various events.

The seventh and eighth grades participated Tuesday and the sixth grade Wednesday. Both events began at 12:30 and closed at 3 p.m. First, second and third place ribbons were awarded in each event.

In order to equalize competition, the seventh and eighth grades were divided into weight divisions as follows: 105 lbs. for the seventh grade and 110 lbs. in the eighth grade.

Winners will be published in next week's paper.

Girl Scouts To Hold Family Rally Sunday

All the girl scout troops of south Arlington Heights will participate in a family rally to be held Sunday afternoon in Deer Grove at shelter 2. To this site at the foot of the lake, all family members are invited to play and eat picnic suppers together. Each family will bring its own picnic supper, cups, plates, silver, and blankets or "sit-upons."

The schedule for the day is as follows:

3 p.m. to 3:30, baseball game. 3:30 to 4:40 p.m., intra troop competition. 4:30 to 5:30 p.m. picnic supper. 5:30 to 6:30 p.m. flag ceremony and court of awards. 6:30 to 7 p.m. clean up.

Troop leaders would appreciate knowing the number of guests who plan to attend so the size of the group can be predicted. Leaders also are prepared to answer any questions families may have.

To Hold Workshop Sunday For Vacation Church School

Next Sunday afternoon, May 15, at 2 p.m. at the Presbyterian church, Arlington Heights, a workshop will be held for all personnel connected with the community-wide vacation church school, planned for June 13 through June 24. This meeting was originally scheduled earlier, but was rescheduled in order that Mrs. Thompson of Chicago, might address the group.

Family Picnic
Announced by Pack 67

Saturday pack 67, sponsored by the North school Parent-Teacher association, will hold a picnic at Deer Grove park for the cub scouts and their families, announced cubmaster C. W. Gustason. Cubs and their families will be expected at camping area 5-a, by 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Baseball, fishing, and hiking will head the slate for afternoon activities. Each family will bring their own dinner, the pack furnishing the refreshments. In the evening the bobcat awards will be presented around a family campfire.

April 30, pack 67 held a father and son hike at Deer Grove park. In the afternoon the boys competed in "olympic games," and in the evening the cubs played host to their fathers for a pancake supper. Over 60 boys and 50 dads attended this event.

May Family Outing
For Pack 223

May 21 will be a big day for the cub scouts and their families in pack 223. Pack 223 will be holding a pot luck family outing for a full day, from 1:30 until 7 p.m. Pack 223 will be inviting 30 friends from the Erie Neighborhood House in Chicago this year, announced cubmaster F. A. Holderman. Afternoon activities will include hiking, fishing, and baseball, and in the evening everyone will sit down to a pot luck dinner, followed by an awards presentation.

Mayor, Alderman, Judge--'Y' Club Prexy Impresses All

Would you like to exchange views with Mayor Richard J. Daley, Alderman Robert E. Merriam, Judge Robert J. Dunne, and Col. Clifford C. Gregg at a luncheon at the Palmer House? Such was the experience this week of an Arlington Heights teen ager, Natalie Glover, 718 N. Hickory, president of the Northwest Suburban YMCA Tri-Hi-Y club.

Natalie was one of 250 teen agers invited to lunch with business and civic leaders of Chicago and its suburbs at the 5th Annual Youth Citizenship luncheon. She was 1 of 2 selected to speak at the dinner on the same program with Mayor Daley and Alderman Merriam on "Citizenship Responsibilities — Youths' Point of View," and made a splendid presentation that brought the admiration and respect of all the other participants.

THE DINNER was the climax of the university of good government program sponsored by the YMCA —a program of citizenship education designed to inform, stimulate, and prepare selected young men and women for moral and political leadership in the American democratic processes of government. The program begins in February and offers members of Hi-Y (YMCA high school boys clubs) and Tri-Hi-Y (YMCA high school girls clubs) a chance to meet and hear outstanding persons in public and governmental life describe their experiences and answer questions put to them by members of the group.

This year the youths were addressed at various functions by Adlai Stevenson, Joseph T. Meek, Alderman Merriam and the University of Chicago Round Table. The program of the university of good government is climaxed with a trip to Springfield where the youth delegates assume the role of senators and representatives for a two day model legislature session. During this time they were addressed by Gov. Stratton and Lt. Gov. Chapman as well as many other governmental leaders.

THE DINNER this year was planned to give the youth an opportunity to tell business and civic leaders their view and experiences of the past weeks and to allow the business leaders to discover that teen-agers are engaged in many, many worthwhile activities.

Other representatives of Arlington Heights YMCA club groups attending the luncheon were: Pete Swanson, Dave Schimmel, and Jane Speers. A bill presented by this group at the model legislature in Springfield on compulsory driver training was one of 10 bills to pass from nearly 150 that were submitted.

Congratulations are in order to these YMCA teen-agers who demonstrate by their conduct the sound attitude of many of our youths.

Brother Of Village Trustee Is Named College President

Arthur B. Bronwell, brother of Arlington Heights village trustee Richard Bronwell, was installed April 30 as ninth president of Worcester Polytechnic Institute, Worcester, Mass.

Attending inauguration ceremonies were Richard and his wife, Shirley, 403 N. Douglas.

College presidents, deans of universities, and leaders in business and science, joined alumni and students at the first public inauguration of a WPI president since 1939.

In his inaugural address, President Bronwell said that he had accepted the WPI chair because he "believed in the integrity and the promise of the youth of this country . . . For I believe that it is largely among the college graduates that society will find its creative leadership for the future."

He also said, "I believe that our students today are just as eager to succeed and just as willing to put forth the effort as those of a quarter of a century ago. Our social system has been working very effectively in the characteristically American way to turn youth's efforts to constructive pursuits.

"Out of my contact with young people has come an abiding faith in their ability to carry civilization to new heights of achievement."

The new president is a graduate of Illinois Institute of Technology and Northwestern university, where he was professor of electrical engineering. He has been associated with the Commonwealth Edison Co. and the Bell Telephone Laboratories. In 1951 he was a member of the commission on engineering education to Japan. He is author of 2 books and since 1947 secretary of the American Society for Engineering Education.

This Week with PTA

Food! It's wonderful! There's nothing like an evening of cutthroat bridge to whet the appetitie, as was evidenced by the line that formed at the refreshment table following the PTA's spring card party April 28.

These attractive prizes went home with lucky guests at the end of the PTA spring card party April 28. Prizes were donated by local merchants.

Mrs. Hoppe to Appear At Final Meeting

Those who have heard book reviews given by Mrs. Laurene Hoppe will need no urging to attend the final meeting this school year of the Arlington Heights PTA Tuesday, May 17, at 8:15 p.m. in the Junior high school gymnasium. PTA groups of all schools, including Junior high, will combine for this last general meeting.

Besides having the opportunity to hear one of Mrs. Hoppe's always penetrating and illuminating book discussions, PTA members will also be asked to vote upon certain revisions in the by-laws copies of which changes were dis-(copies of which changes were dis-will witness the installation of next year's officers, with Mrs. Nat Burfeind as installing officer.

Refreshments will be served in the cafeteria following the meeting, by mothers of kindergarten afternoon section 2 and second grade section 3 of South School, kindergarten sections 3 of both morning and afternoon of North school, and kindergarten afternoon section 2 of Ridge.

Northwest Council To Meet May 26

The last meeting until fall of the Northwest Suburban council will meet May 26, at the Park Ridge Community church. The meeting will be held from 9:30 a.m. until 2:15 p.m., with luncheon served at 11:45 a.m.

Sales Tax Increase Urged For School Aid

The revised formula to provide state aid for schools, drawn up by the school problems commission, could provide an increase of $8 to $10 per pupil for Arlington Heights, if passed as proposed. The earlier recommendations made by the commission would cost village schools $10 per pupil now presently received, so it is evident that the revised plan is more desirable for us, as this difference would amount, in total, to some $35,000 to $40,000.

Whether or not this plan is ever presented to the state legislature depends on whether additional state funds can be made available for the purpose, as well as on receipt of letters by legislators from their constituents urging that the formula be presented as a bill to the legislature.

The proposed 1-year-only 1 per cent increase in the state sales tax would finance the introduction of the bill, as well as providing additional funds for school aid. Governor Stratton has promised that the major portion of the income received from such an increase would be used for the benefit of Illinois schools.

It is imperative that Arlington Heights schools receive additional state aid if they are to keep pace with the rapid increase in population. All persons interested in seeing our schools maintain high scholastic standing and proper facilities will not only vote for the tax increase, but will write to our legislators to urge the introduction of the revised formula.

Kindergartners to Register This Month

All children who attain the age of 5 on or before December 2, 1955, will be eligible to enroll in kindergarten for next year. Registration will take place May 23 at North school, May 24 at Dryden, May 26 at Ridge and May 27 at South.

In addition to the child's birth certificate, parents should bring records of physical examination by a physician, and dental examination (don't forget to bring the child). If any new residents have not been contacted, they may call the school to obtain the proper certificate forms.

Jo Mitchell Wins Trip To Girls State

Jo Mitchell, junior at Arlington Heights high school, has been chosen by the American Legion Women's auxiliary to attend Illinois Girls State camp this summer.

The purpose of the camp is to provide training in citizenship for Illinois high school girls, by giving them an opportunity to live together as self-governing citizens and to inform themselves about the duties, privileges, rights, and responsibilities of American citizens.

Girls are chosen for the camp on the basis of their interest in civics, government, leadership, good character, self-reliance, honesty, scholarship and cooperation.

Jo has been a hard worker in student council affairs for 3 years, holding the elective office of recording secretary this year. She is a prominent member of the school newspaper staff, and is active in the affairs of her class. She was initiated into National Honor society last week and received her four-semester honor pin this week.

Junior High Teacher Attends Outdoor Education Workshop

Robert Belle of Arlington Heights Junior high school teaching staff, is attending an outdoor education workshop from May 11 through May 13. The workshop is being jointly sponsored by Noble Puffer, county superintendent of schools, and the Cook county forest preserve district.

The Forest Preserve is providing trained naturalists to conduct field trips and class sessions.

Belle plans to gather information concerning plant and aquatic life and soil development, which will help the entire Junior high school staff in their teaching of the natural sciences.

Words & Music

THE SILVER WHISTLE

Old age is worth waiting for—at least, that's what Village Theatre attempted to prove Thursday and Friday with its production of the farce, "The Silver Whistle."

Accurately portrayed by a youthful cast were the diffident inmates of a church-affiliated old peoples' home, unhappy and senile in the rigid routine of supervised life. With the arrival of a 47-year-old tramp masquerading as a 77-year-old world traveler kept virile by the secret potion of Twingsti, the aged learn to live happy and meaningful existences.

Of particular merit was the garden set of technical director Maurice Geye, which lent a professional atmosphere to an otherwise amateur production.

Lead roles were taken by Charlotte Shaughnessy as Miss Tripp, attractive young superintendent of the home, and Al Wilcox as the swaggering hobo who promises to bring new youth to the inmates. Wilcox did much to rescue the play from mediocrity. With a relaxed and likable stage presence, he was sprightly and casual in his portrayal of the romantic rogue.

Mrs. Shaughnessy seemed to fit well into the role of the pretty and naive Miss Tripp, whose life was devoted to good works and the inhibited attentions of her long-time suitor, Rev. Watson.

Perhaps the most entertaining performance was given by Anne Nygren, who delightfully interpreted the palsied Mrs. Hamner. Maintaining character throughout, she frequently attracted attention to herself with a burlesque chomping of the gums.

Also providing comic relief was Marcelle Wilcox as the dyspeptic Miss Hoadley who kept her scotch hidden in a bird house.

Lending an unusual air of credence to the clerical collar was Bob Tindall, who developed Rev. Watson from a cold, formal worshipper of the proper into a warm and human personality by the final curtain.

Adequate performances were created by Harriet Smith as the amorous and thrice-wed Mrs. Sampler and Bob Hawley as the practical wanderer, Emmett.

Vera Folkman provided chuckles with her characterization of Mrs. Gross, the "woman against sin" confined to a wheel chair. She held character well, glaring and glowering at the "sin" rampant about her. She failed, however, to project some of her cleverest lines to the audience, which missed them entirely.

Since Village Theatre couldn't borrow a police uniform, they borrowed a policeman—Irvin McDougall—from the Arlington Heights police department.

Most delightful scene in the play was the Twingsti potion bit when Erwenter tries to revitalize an expectant Mr. Cherry, played by Roger Burke, and Mr. Beebe, played by Larry Jenness. The "dirty name" monologue by Jenness was hilarious.

Special commendation is due Mary Tindall and her make-up staff for transforming the players (average age 33) into an elderly crew.

Marian Malcolmson directed this, the final Village Theatre production for the current season.

P.S.—Omar would be offended were he not included in this review. Omar is, of course, the rooster who was disgustingly well-behaved throughout the entire play, only occasionally rustling about in his wire cage.

Miss Lorraine Thies Weds Arthur Steward

(Community Camera

In a double ring ceremony that took place at 5 p.m. April 23 in St. John Evangelical church, Bensenville, Miss Lorraine May Thies, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernst Thies of Itasca, became the bride of Arthur Steward of Chicago. The Rev. Edward Bergstraesser officiated at the ceremony amid a background of white lilies.

Mrs. Herman Magers served as soloist and organist during the ceremony in which Mr. Thies have his daughter in marriage.

For her marriage the bride wore a gown of white lace and nylon fashioned with high neckline, long sleeves and full skirt. A seed pearl headpiece held her fingertip veil in place and she carried a bouquet of pink roses, stephanotis and ivy leaves.

Miss Doris Reindl of Arlington Heights was maid of honor and bridesmaids were the bride's cousins, Mrs. Rober Streetz, Mrs. Leroy Holmquist and Miss Darlene Rohressen. Miss Shirley Mae Willert and Miss Nancy Streetz served as junior bridesmaids and 4-year-old Linda Herzog, also a cousin of the bride, was flower girl.

All attendants wore identical ballerina length gowns of nylon taffeta with stoles of veiling to match their gowns. Their gowns were in shades of orchid, aqua, yellow, melon, green, and pink respectively with the flower girl in orchid also. Linda carried a basket of mixed roses and the other attendants carried crescent bouquets of mixed spring flowers. They wore picture hats to complete their costumes.

Tommy Holmquist, 3, cousin of the bride, served as ring bearer wearing a white suit and carrying a white satin pillow with the wedding rings.

Harold Blum, brother-in-law of the groom, was best man and ushers were Roger Streetz, the bride's brother, Raymond Thies, and her cousin, James Kouzmanoff.

A dinner and reception for 200 guests was held in the Bensenville firehouse. Mrs. Thies received in an aqua dress with white accessories and an orchid corsage. The groom's sister, Mrs. Harold Blum of Chicago, wore a blue dress with white accessories and an orchid corsage.

After a 10-day Florida honeymoon, the newlyweds are temporarily residing with the bride's parents until the completion of their own home in Mount Prospect.

The bride is a graduate of Arlington Heights high school. Her bridegroom is employed by the Ambassador East hotel in Chicago.

News Of Rolling Meadows

HELENE BRISTOL, Editor 2104 South Street CLearbrook 3-8125

Parents — Attention

Everyone knows that water and children are almost inseparable, except when the water happens to be in the family bathtub. Unfortunately, the creek running through Rolling Meadows has an almost unbeatable attraction to children. The banks of the creek through the city, however, are or have been graded fairly flat, and any child inadvertently falling into the water could quite probably climb back out.

This is not the case with the creek bed in the race track property. Just inside the fence is a deep pool in the creek with very steep banks where many of the Rolling Meadows youngsters have found good fishing. As is the case of small children anywhere, the little ones have taken to following the older children into the racetrack property.

Last Wednesday, May 4, this practice almost had a tragic ending. A little girl, 3 years old, from School drive, slid down the bank into the pool, became panicky since she could not get back out. Fortunately Ralph Brunt of Lark court had walked to the creek and heard the children screaming. He rescued the little girl from drowning and returned her, wet and frightened but otherwise unhurt, to her parents. What might have happened had not Mr. Brunt been close by is frightening to think.

When the condition of the fence was called to the attention of the racetrack, a meeting was arranged between William Dean of Kimball Hill & Associates, Clarence Brinkman, superintendent of Arlington Park, John Northcote, mayor, and your reporter.

Mr. Brinkman reports that many, children are invading the racetrack property which has an undeniable but dangerous attraction for them. Besides the creek, there are many pieces of broken machinery sitting about, a large lagoon which is 4 to 5 feet deep, not to mention the stables and grandstand itself. With the approach of the racing season, the high-strung race horses will soon be arriving, and the mere sight of a strange child along the rail or in a paddock could cause the child or an innocent stable boy to be trampled. It was agreed that the Hill organization would clean the creek near the racetrack fence, and grade down the sides of the dangerous pool. The racetrack will repair the fence along that section as rapidly as possible. It will remain the major responsibility of parents, however, to see that their children are not invading that property.

While some damage has been done to the racetrack property, it is the safety of the children themselves which is the major concern of everyone.

All youth organizations in the city are being requested to warn their members of the dangers involved and to call upon the good citizenship training of the children to obtain their cooperation in staying away from the track.

It must be realized, however, that youth organizations, fences, police patrols or any other preventive measures will be against a "stone wall" if parents remain passive and do not try to prevent their own children from invading the track property. It is the duty of every parent in Rolling Meadows whose child may have gone or may be able to go into the racetrack land to strongly warn them of the dangers involved and to put this admittedly attractive playground strictly "out of bounds."

If the situation is not cleared the track officials will be forced to take poice action. Let's all cooperate in every possible way and keep our Rolling eMadows youngsters safe.

Welcome World

May 7 was the arrival date for little Gary Matzl. Gary checked into West Suburban hospital in Oak Park at the healthy weight of 7 pounds 7 ounces. His mother and father, Eleanor and Bob Matzl of 3001 Park court, are mighty anxious to bring their new family addition home. Just as anxious to see their new baby brother are Dwayne, who is 6½ years old, and Janet, who is just 1½.

The second boy has just joined the family of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Holthe of 2309 Wilke rd. David Louis Holthe tipped the scales at 8 pounds 5½ ounces when he arrived April 30, at Cuneo Memorial hospital in Chicago. David's older brother, Donald, who is 21 months old, is anxiously waiting to see him. Also eager to see their new grandchild are Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Holthe of Chicago. Unfortunately, David was not able to come home to Rolling Meadows with his mother, but his family and their friends are hoping the heart condition with which he is suffering will be cleared and that he will be home in Rolling Meadows with his family soon.

Kathy and Susan Rybski are proud little girls these days because they have something at their house which few of their playmates can equal—a new baby sister. Maureen Ann joined the family of Betty and Walter Rybski of 2806 St. James st., April 30. The little girl weighed 6 pounds 11 ounces on her arrival at St. Joseph hospital, Elgin.

Bake Sale

How would you like a delicious homemade cake or pie, or even better some homemade bread or rolls? You can have them this Saturday, May 14. On that day the women of the Lutheran Ladies group will hold a bake sale at the community barn from 9:30 a.m. to 12 noon. Here is your chance to avoid those parking problems of shopping in town for bakery goods, as well as the golden opportunity to buy some outstandingly good homemade baking. If you would like further information about the sale you may call Mrs. Edward Westphall at Clearbrook 3-2776.

Pinochle Club Meets

The Jay lane ladies pinochle club held its monthly meeting at the home of Diane Campbell, 2408 Jay lane, Thursday evening, April 28. Joining in the game of skill as well as the pleasant social exchanges were Helen Siewenie, Barbara Buck, Norma Maffee, Kaye Schiller, Jaunita Anderson and Mildred Christensen. The hostess served refreshments to her guests after they had enjoyed their evening of cards.

Tale (or Tail) of A Coonskin Cap

Lost—last Thursday during the high winds, by little Chuckie Sitka, 2 years old, son of Howie and Marilyn Sitka of 2311 Bluebird lane, behind the home of his neighbors on Bluebird lane, the tail of his coonskin cap. If anyone finds the tail from a Davy Crockett cap in the backyards between Jay lane and Bluebird lane, would you please call Mrs. Marilyn Sitka at Clearbrook 5-0778 or return it to the Sitka home. Little Chuckie Sitka is anxious for the happy ending to his tale (or should it be tail?).

TV Antennas

Another accident during the high winds last week was the loss of a chimney from one of the homes in Rolling Meadows. An extremely large TV antenna had been anchored to the chimney, and since it did not have the proper bracing or guy wires attached to it, the high winds played havoc to both chimney and antenna—and down did come TV antenna, chimney and all! While the chimney was repaired by Kimball Hill & Associates in this instance, residents are urged by the builder to properly brace and wire their roof antennas to avoid the recurrence of this type accident.

Residents Move

The empty house at 2105 Jay lane is the reminder to their Jay lane neighbors that Mr. and Mrs. George Westcott have moved from Rolling Meadows. Mr. and Mrs. Westcott and their 1½ year old son, George, left Rolling Meadows May 2, to make their new home in Sacramento, Calif.

Cancer Drive A Success

The Cancer Drive in Rolling Meadows was concluded last week, and the final tally of contributions proved the generosity of residents was no myth. The total of contributions was $279.62, an excellent record for our fairly small community. Mrs. Aubrey Amundson of 2400 Dove st., acted as chairman for the drive in Rolling Meadows. Members of the Lutheran Ladies group assisted her, as well as some volunteer women from the community. A total of 19 women worked on the drive, and it is believed almost every home in the community was contacted. The women not only solicited contributions for this important cause, but they also delivered a booklet on the danger signs of cancer to every home contacted It is felt that the booklets may prove to be the important part of the drive, and could, at some later date, permit the early diagnosis of cancer for some resident.

Locked Out

For the information of residents of the 2300 block on Park st., the pounding heard and the flashlights shining round the home of Ed and Angie Thornton last Tuesday evening were not caused by prowlers or burglars. After an evening spent with their neighbors Angie and Dave Lack, the Thorntons returned home only to find they had lost their key. Ed and Angie claim their home at 2309 Park st. is practically burglar-proof, since they spent almost 3 hours trying to get in themselves. After trying all sorts of common entry methods, Ed Thornton finally removed his kitchen storm window and with a considerable amount of wiggling and squirming finally managed to get in. Angie Thornton claims 1 thing was accomplished at any rate—it will be a long time before they ever leave their house again without checking to be sure they have their keys.

Hospitalized

Mrs. Carol Zimmer of 2508 Fremont st. underwent major surgery May 2, at the Lutheran Deaconess hospital in Chicago. Mrs. Zimmer is expected home the latter part of this week. Her neighbors and friends wish her a speedy recovery and a happy homecoming after her long stay in the hospital.

Gerry Crane, the hard-working and popular secretary of the Community church of Rolling Meadows, spent several days this week in Memorial hospital in Elmhurst. Some minor surgery was performed, and Gerry is well on the road to recovery. You can be sure her family and friends, as well as the church, will be very glad to see her at home again.

Bible Study Class

The Rolling Meadows Women's Bible study class is holding another of their meetings this evening, Thursday, at the home of Mrs. Lee Hultgren at 2308 South st. The group is currently studying the gospel of St. John. The meeting for next week has been planned for May 19, at the home of Mrs. Alice Swetman of 2102 South st. All women of the community are invited to attend the Bible study classes. For further information call Mrs. Swetman at Clearbrook 3-8136.

Bridal Shower

Mrs. Sina McGovern and her daughter, Pilar, held a bridal shower in their home at 2909 Wilke rd., last Saturday evening. The guest of honor was Miss Dolores Towse of Skokie, who will be married to Mrs. McGovern's son, A1/c John E. Santos next Saturday. A beautiful array of gifts was received by Miss Towse. The guests included the mother of the bride-to-be, Mrs. Charles Towse of Skokie. Also attending the shower were Mrs. R. Kenny of Skokie, Mrs. H. Wicker of Niles, Mrs. June Wicker of Morton Grove, Mrs. Barbara Wicker of Glenview, Mrs. Marie McDaniel and her daughter, Joan, of Lake Zurich; Mrs. E. Holstead, Mrs. Dan Duffy, Mrs. William Klouthis, Mrs. Joseph Rajkowski, and Mrs. Peter Keller of Rolling Meadows. Mrs. Concha Villar, the mother of Mrs. McGovern, who recently arrived with her granddaughter, Pilar, from Cuba, was also on hand for the celebration. A lavish buffet was prepared and served by Mrs. McGovern for the shower.

The entire McGovern family, accompanied by Mrs. Villar, will travel to Ardmore, Okla., to attend the wedding. The happy occasion will be made even more joyful by the presence of Mrs. Villar, who has not seen her grandson for many years.

The first annual banquet of the Rolling Meadows Junior Woman's club was held Monday evening at Brandt's restaurant in Palatine. This event climaxed the year's work for the almost 60 members of the group which was organized last November. Following the banquet the newly-elected officers were installed. —Staff Photo

Community Church News

Women's Association

An important meeting of the Women's association of the Community church was held May 5, at the Barn. At that time the women adopted their constitution and by-laws under which they will henceforth operate. They also elected a new slate of officers to serve for the coming year. They are Leona Gobeyn, president; Noreen Enger, vice president; Ethel Slaninka, treasurer; Mary Erstrella, corresponding secetary; Shirley Jaaksi, recording secretary; Barbara Schneider, program chairman; Jeannette Howard, chaplain, Norma Mann, publicity chairman; Shirley Roeing, social chairman; Phyllis Cardella, ways and means chairman; and Martha Jordan, membership chairman. The group also allotted $200 to be given to the church. Refreshments were served following the meeting which were enjoyed by the women present. Five pints of cream used for the meeting were donated by the Arlington Milk company.

Barn Painted

A group of almost 30 young people from the Glenview Community church really showed their true Christian spirit when they turned up at the Barn in Rolling Meadows to tackle the tremendous job of painting the outside. The hard work of the group was relieved slightly at noon when a committee, under the direction of Al Garms served the young people lunch. The menu featured hot-dogs, Coke and ice cream, which after all the fresh air and paint could not help but taste good. The Community church and all residents of the community who use the Barn for meetings are sincerely grateful to these fine young people who gave of their time and talent so generously.

Music Program

An outstanding program of sacred music was presented by the music organization of the Community church last Sunday evening in honor of Mother's day. A featured guest who added a great deal to the program was George Williams, a prominent Chicago organist. Both the Junior and Senior choirs, under the direction of Doris Zaccard and Jay Dahm, presented selections which were varied to please the taste of everyone present. Sam Bol acted as narrator for the program.

Saturday Movie

The movie scheduled for this Saturday, May 14, is "The Boy With Green Hair." The movie will be presented at 2 and 7:30 p.m. This is a delightful story which should interest children and adults alike. It is a technicolor presentation which should make it even more enjoyable.

Pulpit Exchange

Sunday, Rev. Ringsmuth will serve as guest minister at the Flossmoor Community church. In his place the Community church in Rolling Meadows will have the honor of hearing Rev. Huggo Leinberger, pastor of the Flossmoor church. The Flossmoor Community church has been a generous supporter of the church here in Rolling Meadows, and the congregation is anxious to make Rev. Leinberger welcome during his brief visit.

Tupperware Demonstration

The church school staff is busy working to raise funds for the acquisition of Sunday school equipment. Their latest project will be the sponsorship of a Tupperware demonstration at the Barn Thursday, May 19, at 8 p.m. The Sunday school staff will serve refreshments following the demonstration. Everyone in the community is invited, and reminded that credit for their purchases will go to a good cause. In order to plan the refreshments and the demonstration supplies needed, it is hoped those planning to attend will call Elena Forbes, CL 3-8096; Dorothy Golz, CL 3-6590; or Iris Sydow, CL 5-0426. This should be an outstanding opportunity to purchase articles of excellent quality locally while aiding your own community.

Young Traveler

Danny Swetman, who is quite a grown-up young man of 6 years, has just returned to his home in Rolling Meadows following a trip to Mississippi. Danny, son of Dick and Alice Swetman of 2102 South st., spent 2 weeks in Meridian, Miss., in the company of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Swetman of Chicago, who had traveled there to visit relatives. Also traveling back to Meridian on the train with Danny and his grandparents was Mrs. Sue Belle Lewis, Dick Swetman's aunt, who visited briefly in Rolling Meadows before her return home. Danny's older brother, Dicky, who is 7 years old, made the trip to Meridian 2 years ago, and Danny has been eagerly looking forward to his opportunity to travel there ever since. Now little Ellen, who is just 4 years old, thinks it only fair that she be allowed to go to Meridian just as soon as possible, but her parents feel she may have to wait a few years before they can allow her to make such a long journey.

Boy Scout News

May 4, marked the first meeting of boy scout troop 68 of Rolling Meadows. It was a great success, and 3 patrols were formed. Patrol leaders and assistant patrol leaders were elected for each patrol. The patrols were reorganized to try to place the boys in patrols near their homes. The new patrols are Panther patrol — Terry Loveless, leader; John Setzer, assistant; Steve Walker, Ron Tartar, Danny Haase, and Neal Christensen: Pioneer patrol—Kenny Keller, leader; Bob Carlson, assistant; Henry Seestedt, Jim Notke, Bill Klouthis, and Donny Rajkowski: former Hawk patrol — Bill Jansen, leader; Tom Broderick, assistant; Roger Rummrey, Don Moses, Jerry Broderick, Les McDonald and Buddy Smith. Andy Hayden was appointed troop scribe.

The boy scout committee is in the process of attempting to obtain equipment for the scout camporee May 20, 21 and 22. They are also urgently seeking a man to act as scoutmaster for the new troop. If you are interested in this work or have any form of scout training, won't you contact Pete Keller at Clearbrook 3-2840.

The boy scouts from Rolling Meadows troop 68 will join troop 69 of Palatine Sunday to participate in the youth parade being held in Chicago. The scouts will be taken to the parade in school buses.

Mother's Day Birthday

Little Laurie Sedivec was a real Mother's day gift for her mother when she arrived on that day 2 years ago. Her birthday has since been the occasion for a combination Mother's day birthday celebration for her family. Helping the Sedevic family of Cary celebrate the event were Fred and Peg Schultz of George st., Laurie's aunt and uncle. Also enthusiastically enjoying the event was Cheryl Schultz, Laurie's cousin.

Brownie News

Mother's day was a big event for the little brownies of troop 347 under the supervision of Dorothy Amundson and Shirley Sorenson. The girls made bouquets of paper violets to present to their mothers on that day. The troop is now planning a trip to the Hawthorne-Mellody Farm in Libertyville which should be educational as well as a lot of fun.

Brownie troop 37 under the direction of Jane Self and Mildred Windsor also had a special Mother's day project. The girls made rhinestone pins for their mothers for that important day. The pins were exceptionally well done, and when you see a beautiful new pin being worn by a Rolling Meadows' mother you will know from where it came. The older girls of the troop have started to work on their tenderfoot requirements since they are scheduled to "fly up" as scouts in the fall.

It was found that some of the little brownies had inadvertently made an error in their sale of girl scout cookies. The brownies have returned the overcharge to those homes where they remembered selling cookies, but apparently several refunds are still due. If you were overcharged by one of the little girls and would like a refund of your money, will you please call Jane Self at Clearbrook 5-0853.

Birthday Party

While her fifth birthday actually fell May 9, little Diane Poulsen of 2302 Sigwalt st., celebrated the important event Saturday. Her parents, Mildred and Bill Poulsen, gave her a birthday party, highlighted with birthday goodies of ice cream and cake. Helping to celebrate were Diane's sister, Carol, who will be 2 years old next month, Linda Langhoff, Cindy Golz, Randy Kunz, Brian Schroeder, Linda Kay Vlaminck, and Diane's cousins, Mary Kay, Billy and Patsy Moss. Patsy, who is 11 years old, helped to supervise the party and assisted with the children's games.

Christening

Our Lady of the Wayside church in Arlington Heights was the place of the christening of Barbara Ann Falk last Sunday. Father O'Hara performed the baptism ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Falk of 2310 Campbell st. Frank McDonald of 2308 Campbell st., served as godfather, and Mrs. Marge Riley of Wheaton was the baby's godmother. A christening party was held at the Falk home following the baptism. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Frank McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. John Engelking and their daughter Susan, Mr. and Mrs. John Seeley, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Sharples and Mr. and Mrs. Don McEwan, all of Rolling Meadows; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mabilio and their daughter, Marsha, of Edgebrook; Mr. and Mrs. George Newhouse, Jim and Doc Conway, all of Park Ridge; and Mr. and Mrs. Don Fairchild of Park Forest.

Girl Scout News

Cookie Sale

A really outstanding record was set by Rolling Meadows girl scouts and brownies who sold every box of girl scout cookies in their community. A total of 1,344 boxes of cookies were sold for a gross profit of $470.40. Of this amount 5 cents per box will be returned to the girl scout and brownie troops of the community, giving the girls a net total of $67.20 for their activities. The chairman of the cookie sale in Roling Meadows was Dorothy Wirth. Acting as cookie chairmen for the various troops were Beverly Stegeman, troop 353; Shirley Johnson, troop 302; Svea Garms, troop 347; Helen Rush, troop 37; and Zella Blanco, troop 357. These women donated many hours of their time and a great deal of effort in their support of the girl scout organizations, and they are deserving of the thanks of the entire group and community.

Neighborhood Association

The regular monthly meeting of the Rolling Meadows Neighborhood association will not be held this month because of inability to secure the school for a meeting place. Members of the association will be notified when the meeting will be held. Mrs. Irene Sharples, chairman of the association, has announced that the girls will deliver letters from Goodwill Industries to their neighbors as a service project. The girl scout organization is proud to welcome 2 new leaders to their group. They are Mrs. Ruth Soderberg of 2209 Cardinal drive, who will become a brownie leader, and Mrs. Bonnie Schrenicer, 2003 Grove st., will assist Mrs. Ruthmary Zupan in the direction of girl scout troop 353.

Rolling Meadows Visitor

Not all little boys can claim an uncle who has traveled all over the world, but George and Larry Olsen really have that honor. George, who is 2½, and Larry, who is 3½, are the sons of Bob and Wanda Olsen of 2805 St. James st. Bob Olsen's uncle, Walter Olsen, has been visiting the family here in Rolling Meadows. Mr. Olsen is a missionary of the Scandinavia Alliance mission, and even though he is but 41 years of age has traveled to many foreign lands, spending a considerable amount of time in India. Mr. Olsen most recently was assigned to Toronto, Can., and is going to an assignment in North Carolina after a brief vacation in Wisconsin. He is a talented speaker and at the moment has more than 100 lecture engagements scheduled.

Vacationers

It was a vacation trip back to their home town for Marion and Floyd Birt of 2307 Campbell st. Both Marion and Floyd come from Wausau, Wis., and still have many friends and relatives there. The Birts recently enjoyed a week's vacation, and spent an enjoyable period in Wausau with their children, Barbara Jane and Chuckie. Upon their return to Rolling Meadows, Floyd Birt, who is on duty with the navy, found he was not through traveling. The week following his vacation, Floyd flew to San Diego in the course of his navy duties, and did not return home for another week.

'Fence' Man

Jim Campbell, Biesterfield rd., was in Sterling for nearly a month, fencing in parks there. These were mainly on high bluffs along the Rock River, which had been danger points to the children playing in the parks. Upon his return he and Mrs. Campbell enthusiastically plunged into a job that had been waiting, that of planting the entire west side of their lot with flowering shrubs — honeysuckle, mock orange and dogwood.

Dale Ostrowski celebrated his second birthday at a Sunday afternoon party at the home of his parents. Among the guests were both of his grandmothers, many aunts and uncles, and 8 cousins. Highlights of the afternoon were preserved for the future via the medium of home movies.

Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. John Kappa participated in a tour of Chicago's Chinatown, arranged by the Bensenville VFW. The trip was made in buses and it included a visit to their city hall and dinner at the Bamboo Cafe.

Mrs. Suarez's brother and his family of Chicago visited at the Suarez home Sunday.

Fire Fighters

Mystery of the week concerns the weed fire on the easement at the southern end of our subdivision Wednesday afternoon. It was an extremely windy day and only the quick action of a few of our women in rushing to the spot with shovels and buckets of water, kept the fire from getting out of control and spreading to nearby homes. Someone reported seeing a teen age boy lean down and light the fire, then walk quickly away. By the time they realized he had no right there he had disappeared. The "volunteer fire department" included Mrs. Brezinski, Mrs. Ostrowski, Mrs. Depalma, Mrs. Kim and Mrs. Wuesterfeld.

Moved In

A decision to give up their poultry and egg store on Golf rd. in Des Plaines caused the Robert Schafers to look for a new home, and the former Leon Kukulski home at 213 W. Euclid was the one that they decided on. An interesting coincidence occurred which they discovered after they had made the contract with the Kukulskis. Both Mrs. Kukulski and Mrs. Schafer were in the same hospital at the same time for the birth of their sons. Kenneth Kukulski was born November 22 and James Michael Schaefer on November 23. The mothers were in rooms next to one another but did not get acquainted. The found out these facts later.

The rest of the family is Mary, 5 last March; Kathy, to be a 3-year-old next December, and Bobby, 6, in the first grade at St. Mary's school in Des Plaines. They also have Mitzi, the dog that the Kukulskis left.

Before the Schafers had the store, they ran a poultry farm. Now Mr. Schafer is in an entirely different sort of business —he is a life insurance salesman for Minnesota Mutual Insurance company.

Girl Scouts Entertain Mothers At Banquet

The first mother-daughter banquet of the Rolling Meadows scouting organization was held May 3, at the community barn. More than 180 dinners were served, and seating facilities were taxed to the maximum. Following the banquet, the girls of the various scout and brownie troops presented a program for their mothers and guests.

The girls were enthusiastic and proud to act as hostesses. Each girl had made an imitation carnation corsage for her mother, and each table was decorated with imitation floral centerpieces which the girls had made. In cooperation with their daughters and the banquet committee each mother brought an item of food for the banquet. The menu featured fried chicken, french fried potatoes, fruit and jello salad, rolls, cake, coffee, and milk. Milk for the banquet was donated by the Brandt Dairy company.

The program was opened by girl scout troop 302, who conducted the color guard ceremony. Brownie troops 347, 357 and 37 each sang a song for their mothers. Girl scouts of troop 353 presented a series of skits based on the girl scout laws.

Mrs. Irene Sharples, Rolling Meadows girl scout neighborhood association chairman, was a guest at the banquet. Mrs. Sharples expressed her thanks to the group and her appreciation for the outstanding work done by everyone in the organization. Mrs. Ernest Busch of the Palatine neighborhood association was also a guest at the meeting. Mrs. Busch was instrumental in the organization of the girl scout work in Rolling Meadows last fall. She expressed her amazement at the rapid growth of the scouting work in Rolling Meadows and the outstanding cooperation which parents had given the movement. Each of the troop leaders was introduced to the mothers as well. They are Ruthmary Zupan, Dorothy Amundson, Shirley Sorenson, Grace Nordlund, Irene Wiever, Gretchen White, Shirley Sponsler, Jane Self and Mildred Windsor.

Mrs. Svea Garms was in charge of the banquet committee. Assisting her in making the evening such an outstanding success were Betty Bycroft, Dorothy Wirth, Virginia Borgardt, Pat Kaiser, Zella Blanco, Lorraine Michalek, Shirley Sorenson and Shirley Johnson. Several husbands of the committee members, under the supervision of Al Garms, prepared the barn for the banquet, setting up tables and chairs. The scouting organization has expresed its appreciation to these residents who gave so generously of their time to make the first annual banquet the highlight of the scouting year which it proved to be.

Banquet Ends First Season Of Junior Woman's Club

With more than 50 of the club's membership of 60 in attendance the Rolling Meadows Junior Woman's club observed the end of the first year's work with a banquet Monday evening in Brandt's restaurant, Palatine. Since it was first organized in November of last year the club has grown steadily, and the success of the banquet is an indication of the enthusiasm with which the club members have tackled their work.

The highlight of the banquet was the installation of the officers who will preside over club affairs for the coming year. Ballots were cast by club members before the banquet, and the results of the election were announced by Renee Jaremus, club president, who presided over the meeting. The new officers are Sue Schultz, president; Monica Glass, 1st vice president; Jean Ehard, 2nd vice president; Donna Anderson, secretary; Lucille Doyle, treasurer; and Mercedes Brezinski, corresponding secretary. Mrs. Harold McKinley, president of the Woman's club of Des Plaines, conducted the installation ceremony and instructed the women in their duties as officers of the club.

Just before turning the meeting and the club duties over to the new president, Renee Jaremus, retiring president, was presented with the first past president pin of the club. The pin was given to Mrs. Jaremus by Billie Traub, retiring 1st vice president, who praised Mrs. Jaremus for the outstanding work she had performed as the club's first president.

Several honored guests were present at the banquet to lend their support to the new club on this important occasion. They were Mrs. Zada Cahill, new junior director for the 7th district women's clubs; Mrs. Arthur Franzen of the Arlington Heights Woman's club who is the new contact chairman for the Rolling Meadows club; Mrs. Harold McKinley; and Mrs. Mary Beattie, retiring contact chairman and 7th district junior director. Mrs. Beattie was instrumental in the organization of the Rolling Meadows club, and has given many hours of her time assisting the club in its work.

He restoreth your soul...

Here's Dave Judson and Bill Miller. Good friends for a good many years now. They hardly ever "talk" religion—they just always find time to get to Services each week.

There's Susan Brown. She's brought Mary Lou up all alone—her daddy was killed in the war. Susan's a slight little thing, but a pillar of strength. And she's not at all ashamed to admit—she leans all right—on the strength of God.

Janet and Bill were married right in this church—and they come back every week. "Just selfishness on our part," Bill says. "After all, our life together got off to a happy start here . . . and we want to keep it that way!"

Worship together this week

And the Wolf family here—will you just look at those boys! They're feeling very grown-up and proud as punch, going to a Service with Mom and Dad.

We are well blessed. The doors of our churches and synagogues are wide open . . . waiting for us to enter. Set aside a time each week . . . a time apart from the "busyness" of living. You'll find more joy in each day, if you give some time each week to worship.

Pete Taylor sure has grown! Being in the Service has helped him grow up inside, too. As Pete puts it, "A guy's never so big, that he wants to go it alone."

PUBLIC SERVICE ADVERTISING COUNCIL

Ever been a stranger in any town? Then you've known loneliness. And you know how comforting it is to come upon a church or synagogue . . . where the doors are always wide open to everyone.

God's Power Is Practical Remedy

God's healing power is always at hand to heal sickness and financial lack as readily as sin, Ralph E. Wagers of Chicago, told a large audience in Barrington last Thursday.

Regardless of what the problem may be, "right now you have no greater need than to understand what God is, and what this understanding can mean to you practically," Mr. Wagers declared.

A member of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship, Mr. Wagers recently completed a tour which took him to Korea and throughout the Orient. He spoke in Hough Street School Auditorium under the auspices of First Church of Christ, Scientist, Barrington. He was introduced by Harold Heidke, past Reader and Board Chairman.

SPEAKING on "Christian Science: The Operation of Divine Principle in Our Behalf," Mr. Wagers said the key to the solution of all problems is spiritual understanding of God, and man's relation to Him.

He emphasized the need for spiritual growth by pointing out that "God is understood, not through the physical senses, but through spiritual discernment — through spiritually understanding the ideas which express the divine Being and nature."

Christian Science, he went on, teaches the individual to "dispose of evil's false claim that we exist subject to upheavals and catastrophes, cycles which include inflation and deflation, good times and hard times, wars, disease, old age, and death."

He emphasized that through spiritual understanding and systematic prayer, this can be proved in daily life. He added: "God's will for His children includes only that which is good, orderly, and progressive."

MR. WAGERS explained that the goodness and allness of God is brought out in the teachings of Christ Jesus. "To Jesus," he said, "Spirit was the reality."

Mr. Wagers acknowledged that there are times when material problems seem very real. He declared, however, that "If you will admit that God is of a constructive and orderly nature, you will have no difficulty in admitting that He can know only that which is constructive and orderly . . . . What He does not know, does not and cannot truly exist."

Cite Spiritual Progress In Lecture Here

World chaos and confusion are yielding to spiritual growth and progress said Mary C. Holloway of Shreveport, La., in a Christian Science lecture at Des Plaines Sunday afternoon.

Those who gain a spiritual understanding of God's power and goodness have no reason to fear the atomic age, the lecturer stated.

Mrs. Holloway, a member of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship; spoke in Maine township high school auditorium, under the auspices of First Church of Christ, Scientist, Park Ridge, in cooperation with First Church of Christ, Scientist, Des Plaines. Her subject was "Christian Science: Man's Divine Destiny Revealed." She was introduced by Chester Hillman of Park Ridge.

LASTING PEACE, health, and harmony result from spiritually correct knowledge of the things of God, Mrs. Holloway declared. She defined these "things" as God's loving laws which operate to bring humanity freedom and security.

"They are forever ours, by divine decree, to reflect," she said, adding that "as we do reflect them, we are healed of the deflections, the distractions or delusions, which hold mankind in bondage."

To illustrate the lecturer told about the healing of a little 3 year old girl who found and ate a quantity of lye. When a Christian Science practitioner answered the parents' frantic call for help, she said, the child's throat was almost closed.

"A short while later she was free and playing happily. No slightest trace of ill remained," the lecturer said.

COMMENTING on this quick and permanent healing she asked, "What had happened to set aside the dreaded effect of the caustic on the baby's body?"

She explained that the "things of God had been demonstrated as laws of omnipotent Love, and these laws had set aside the belief in destructive material laws of chemistry and so forth. Thus a spiritual understanding of God and His man was in a degree established where before had been a shadow of ignorance and fear."

Wilson Community News

The Community club dance held at Fireman's hall in Palatine last Saturday night certainly was a social success, altho perhaps not as much of a financial success as it could have been. As luck would have it, several other affairs were scheduled for the same evening, but those able to attend enjoyed the variety dancing and the pleasant atmosphere. The club will hold its regular monthly party in the school basement Saturday night and the entire community is invited to attend and join in the fun.

Mothers Tea

Last Thursday afternoon, the brownie troop entertained their mothers at a tea at Wilson school. Sixty-six mothers and daughters were there and we are all pleased to learn that the efforts of their leader, Mrs. Casteel, and her 2 assistants, Mrs. Dowell and Mrs. Carison, are so well rewarded.

Mr. and Mrs. Barney Sargeant visited Mrs. Sargeant's mother, Mrs. Shane, in southern Illinois Mother's day.

Are You Interested In Keeping Your Child Off The Streets This Summer?

Were you wondering how you can arrange some free time for yourself and still have your child constantly supervised? We have the answer.

We are offering a different type of day camp for school-age children.

We will pick up your child at a specified time and return him home in four or five hours. During the time your child spends on our beautiful fifty acres of shaded ground he would be constantly supervised by professionals that have dealt with children for seventeen years.

We pick up your child five days a week, Monday through Friday, rain or shine. A large indoor club room, complete with ping-pong table, piano, fireplace, etc., is available in case of inclement weather.

Your child receives one full hour of horse-back riding lessons given by a qualified instructor each day. If your child is a girl scout or boy scout he may earn his horsemanship badge at this day camp.

At the end of one month your child is eligible to compete in a horse show so you will be able to see the progress he has made.

In addition to the horse-back riding lessons, facilities for many types of other sports are available. Your child will learn sportsmanship as well as having a happy and healthful vacation.

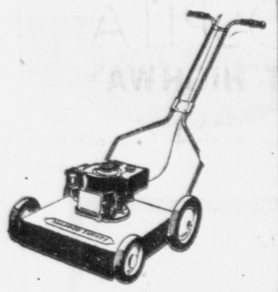

We make this offer at less than the price you can hire a baby-sitter. The cost is only $50 a month. This includes transportation, lessons and use of all facilities. It would cost at least $60 a month for a baby-sitter for four hours a day, plus the constant worry of getting someone competent.

If you are interested in this offer for the full summer rather than for just one month, we are offering a special rate. You may enroll your child for the full summer, that is from the day school closes until the day it reopens for $100.

Applications for first month's enrollment must be in our hands by May 20. First period opens June 13. Arlington Heights representative is Mrs. Doris Voelker, CLearbrook 3-0048. For further information, call GLadstone 5-5030, Kirby's Fairview Stables, 9906 West Lawrence Ave., Schiller Park

Prospect Meadows

Some mothers dined out at elegant places, some mothers wore flowers or put them in vases, some mothers stayed home and fed a large crew, some mothers pulled weeds, I did, did you? With apologies to someone —

Harold and Doris Bethke and children, Karen and Gail, spent their Sunday with Doris' parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Wille, of Des Plaines. Also in on the celebration were Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Wille and their daughter, Susanne.

Marge and Bob Blim joined a group of friends Sunday for the traditional "let's eat out dinner," Elaine and Vern Mars of Chicago, Miles and Alice Dolar of Hillside, and Dorothy and Al Sladek of Berwyn made up the group of diners.

Vic and Connie Heurlin joined Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. MacCallum of Park Ridge for dinner at the Chalet on this day of ladies choice.

Linda, Michael and Debbie Brazeau joined their parents, Lorraine and Chuck, for a day at their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Molitar of Chicago.

Bill and Rosemary Vosburgh and their girls, Marcie and Donna, enjoyed having both grandmothers for a visit last Sunday. Mrs. Marie Vosburgh of Oak Park and Mrs. Margaret Demling of Wheaton were the honored guests.

Arlette and Bob Klein took their girls, Diane and Sue, to Chicago to spend the day with Arlette's mother, Mrs. Helen Klein. Everyone enjoyed a Mothers day supper. For some really good news we can tell all of Diane Klein's friends and neighbors that she started back to school last Monday after her many weeks at home with a broken leg.

Coming Up

The "Spring Fling" is nearly here so grab your dancing shoes. The committee tells us that they would appreciate help in getting the tickets sold. If you are planning to go have your money ready when your ticket seller comes to call so that they don't have to make a lot of trips back and forth. It's Russ Newman at the VFW May 21 so let's go. Next on the agenda is to let you know that there will be an association meeting May 12. Our community has made so much progress on all our projects but we seem to have failed to explain the importance of attending the meetings. Our community's success depends on the help, friendly spirit and satisfaction of every home owner. There are things to be planned, worked at and finally looked upon with satisfaction knowing we have all worked toward, and gained a common goal.

We chose to live here because it looked like a good place to find some of the things we were looking for. Urge your friends and neighbors to attend their meeting. C. J. Schons has invited the community to use his basement for a meeting place. 424 Larkdale is the place, May 12 the date and 8:30 the time.

The next meeting of the fair committee will be May 23 at the home of Pat Wrath, 405 Bob-O-Link. Committee chairmen are asked to bring a list of workers for their booths covering the 2 days and also activity plans where necessary.

Sympathy

Friends and neighbors of Otto and Barbara Schlegel extend their sympathies on the death of Otto's father.

Parties and More Parties

Sunday afternoon was Diane Campbell's fourth birthday and a happy birthday it was with Linda Battaglia, Nancy Nelson, Karen Bethke, Patty Tucker, Debbie Peregrine, Tom and Jimmy Hartnell of Salem, Wis., Billy Tate of Park Ridge, Charles Russell, Robert Newman of Chicago, Deborah and Robert Richae of Chicago and sister Debra Ann who is only 1 but had just as much fun as the others. Diane's grandmother, Mrs. Frydis Schune, helped with the party. Cal and Gloria Campbell and their children spent the previous weekend in Burlington, Wis. for the annual May Day celebration. The theme was "Peace, Justice and Freedom." They visited Gloria's brother, Pete Hartnell, who took part in the affair, and Pete's wife, Randi, and their sons, Jimmy and Tom. Gloria's mother, Mrs. Frydis Schune accompanied them.

Andy and Kay Bischoff dined and danced at the Elmhurst country club last Saturday. The affair was given by the Park Ridge Infant Welfare.

Helena and Ralph Woodruff and Lois and Ed Kandul gave a party last Thursday night for Bob and Doralee Morales. They all got together for 1 more party before Bob and Doralee leave the Meadows.

Marge Blim was hostess at the last meeting of the Canasta club, to Loretta LeForge, Edith Schroeder, Marilyn Peregrine, Chris Pelletier, Ruth Burt and Lisa Wells. The gals enjoyed refreshments and a lot of conversation.

Ray and Joyce LeBrun enjoyed an evening of dancing last Friday night at Mohawk country club.

A week ago Tuesday found another one of the Meadows' canasta clubs in session. Lillian Kunz was the hostess and guests were Joyce Le Brun, Gert Derning, Joyce Hoglund, Elsie Leonhardt, Peggy Orlowski, Pearl Moeller, Lorraine Brazeau, Beth Meigel, Marie Robotkay, Lorraine Geraci, Jean Seeber, Marie Stanke and Betty Sabbitt.

Last Saturday was a very big day for Bill Cody. He received his first communion in the morning and in the afternoon he had a party with the local boys to celebrate the event. Corky and Mike Carey, Richard and Mike Doyle, Larry and Ronnie Richardson, Tommy Seymour and his brothers Dick and Don were the boys who enjoyed the ice cream and cake.

Sunday morning Tommy Seymour received his First Communion and then spent the day with many of his friends. His grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Scott and their son, Craig, were among the first to arrive. In the late afternoon some of his friends came to celebrate with ice cream and cake: Richard and Mike Doyle, Donald and Mike Carey, Billy and Dick Cody, and Tom's sister Russ Ann. In the evening Mr. and Mrs. William Dinzek and their 2 boys, Bill and Bob, came out from Chicago.

Another of the Meadows' canasta clubs has been saving its dues for several months so that members could take their husbands to dinner. Last weekend was finally decided upon and these generous wives took their spouses to the Ivanhoe for dinner and an evening of dancing. Those who made up the party were Maureen and Miles Kalwitz, Bernice and Ronald Long, Howard and Elaine Johnson, Lou and Lynn Nye, Bob and Kay Wehrheim and Jim and Kay Wilson. Bernice Long is spending this week in Mexico so they also made this evening one of 'farewell and have fun.'

Speedy Recovery

This wish is for Mrs. Alma Ihlenveldt, Ed Kandul's mother. She entered the hosiptal May 5 and they hope she will be home soon.

Along with this Mother's day celebration we bet that Bob LeForge was treated as though it was Father's day. He managed to get home for one of his infrequent weekends and his children, Janis, Judy, Susan and Sherri couldn't have been happier.

Ed and Ann Cody were visited by Ed's cousin, Ed Smith from the state of Washington, recently.

Lorraine Geraci and Lorraine Brazeau spent evening last week Brazeau spent an evening last week at the Arlington Hts. VFW. We understand it was quite profitable.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Ulan had the pleasure of having Eve's mother, Mrs. Clydel Strope of Pekin, for Mother's day weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Dowiarz enjoyed having Mrs. Dowiarz' parents with them for the weekend, they are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sedlar from Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Riley of Oriole lane were visited by Pat's aunt, Mrs. Ralph Garten, and her daughter, Annabelle of Chicago, last Friday.

With Our Scouts

Intermediate girls have planned a program to welcome the "fly ups" next week and are hoping to invest these new girls at the June meeting of the Women's auxiliary. Brownies spent their meeting playing games and next Tuesday the brownie troop is having a farewell party for girls who are to soon join the intermediates. The girls who are to say goodbye are, Susy Finch, Cathy Heckenbach of Wedgewood Terrace, Terri Larson, Marilyn Murdock, Andrea Splithoff and Betty Warfsman of Wedgewood terrace. Dens 12 and 13 of the Meadows are partially working on their circus theme this month and partially just having fun playing baseball and other outdoor games at their meetings. The brownies are contemplating seeing "Cinerama" May 21.

More Parties

Vi and Irv Manda of Bob-O-Link rd., spent last Sunday entertaining their son, Dick, and his wife Viv, and their children, Ricky and Debbie from St. Charles. Also on the list were Delores and Bill Blair and their children Wendy and Bridget from Lombard. Delores is their daughter.

Jim and Kay Wilson and Mrs. Myrtle Stickrod entertained Jim's mother and dad, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Wilson, for dinner last Sunday.

Elaine Johnson spent a pleasant day last week when she entertained a former Meadowite, Mrs. Conway.

Miss Lisa Wehrheim spent her first birthday celebrating with her family. Her grandparents Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Wehrheim and Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Green were special guests and her brothers and sisters, Bob, Christine, Gregory and Janice joined in the fun.

Your reporter begs off from going any farther this week because of the flu. See you next week.

NEEDLE in the GROOVE

by PAUL LITTLE

We've stacks of wonderful new discs for your listening pleasure, so let's set the turntable spinning to as many as we can hear. From Columbia, Andre Kostelanetz directs the Philharmonic symphony orchestra of New York in your favorite Johann Strauss waltzes, like "Emperor" and "Tales from the Vienna Woods."

Then, to make you long for an early summer vacation—preferably abroad!—Columbia offers the magnificent 12-inch album entitled "Ports of Call," wit' a full color photograph depicting a Mediterranean port. It's waxed by the Philadelphia orchestra under Eugene Ormandy, contains Ravel's haunting "Bolero" and "Pavane" and the exciting "La Valse," as well as Jacques Ibert's colorful, thrilling "Escales," three musical protraits of foreign ports of call. Incredibly realistic sound, making the great Philadelphia orchestra seem as if it were playing in our own living room!

Choose Co-Chairmen To Direct Our Saviour's Altar Guild

Mrs. Donald Petelle and Mrs. John Pfingsten were elected co-chairmen of the first Altar guild of Our Saviour's United Lutheran church in a meeting held Wednesday evening, May 4, for the purpose of organizing the guild. The new chairmen will serve for the remainder of the current year and will direct the organization in the care of the altar linens and furnishings, in the preparations connected with the administration of the sacrament and in the program of altar flowers.

Present at the meeting were Mesdames William Behlke, George Hoog, Walter Petelle, John Hines, Edgar Neas, Richard Brettner, A. Vern Heim, Robert Hult, Roy Anderson, Norman Blackwell, Donald Petelle and John Pfingsten. Also attending were the Rev. George Hoog, pastor of Our Saviour's, and Byrd Miller, councilman in charge of the worship committee of the church.

Preliminary plans were made at the Altar guild meeting for the organization of the women of the church under the unified plan outlined by the United Lutheran church. A meeting to which all women of the congregation are invited has been set for Thursday, May 26, at Dryden school, 8 p.m. An explanation of the unified plan and how it operates through the various service organizations such as the Women's Missionary society and Ladies' Aid will be presented.

The senior and junior choirs of Our Saviour's extend an invitation to both members and non-members of the church to attend their choral presentation of "The Life of Christ," to be given May 20, at 8 p.m. in Dryden school. Mrs. George Hoog will conduct the concert, with Mrs. Howard Buchholz as the narrator and Mrs. Albert Stedry the accompanist.

Our Saviour's Lutheran church will be received as a constituent congregation of the Illinois Synod of the United Lutheran church in America May 24 at the annual convention in Dixon. The entire church council plans to be present for this historic occasion in the history of the new congregation, and other members are invited to attend. Sessions of the convention will be held throughout the days and evenings of May 23 through 26 and Pastor Hoog will be in Dixon for the entire period as will Edgar Neas, who is serving as lay delegate.

One of the subjects to be considered at the synodical convention is the possible relocation of the campus of Carthage college, Illionis Synod college, now located at Carthage, Ill., in Hancock county. Among the reasons for the move are cited the poor transportation facilities to Carthage and a lack of opportunities for part-time student work . A new location west of Chicago has been suggested and will be discussed at the convention.

The rite of confirmation, originally scheduled for May 29, is postponed to June 5, at which time the first confirmation class of Our Saviour's will be received into adult membership. Public examination of the confirmands will be held May 27 at 8 p.m. in Dryden school. New members will also be received into the congregation June 5.

Arlington And Palatine In District Golf At Old Orchard Friday

THURSDAY, MAY 12, 1955

Covering Northwest and West Suburban Sports

MAC SAYS

— by G. A. McElroy

IT IS DISTRICT TOURNAMENT week in sports. Track meets to determine state meets will be held Friday night or Saturday in this area at Evanston, Riverside-Brookfield, Batavia, Rockford (West), and Kankakee. Golf tournaments will be held Friday at Arlington Heights, New Trier, LaGrange, Joliet, and Rockford East. Five of the 11 golf districts are in the suburban and northern Illinois area. The one at Arlington Heights is an added tournament this year in the Chicago suburbs.

District and sub-district play in baseball will be under way this coming weekend and through next week. Northwest conference teams will concentrate on their league schedule this year and pass up the sub-districts. Baseball competition, the way the sub-district and districts are organized, has little, if any, incentive for the smaller suburban schools.

WE HAVE OFTEN WONDERED why the state office did not set up another district in track in this area, as well as in golf. The state champ annually comes from the suburbs and there are so many fine competitors in this area that a division of Lake county, Cook and DuPage county suburbs north of Lake Street and suburbs south of Lake Street would make a better arrangement than the two districts now set up at Evanston and Riverside.

Of course in track a boy can qualify for the state meet and not even get a placing medal in the district first five in an event, if he meets a certain time or mark requirement.

This has, in the last few years, been extended even to the short dashes and hurdles. Of course, the first and second place winners in each event automatically qualify for the state meet, no matter what mark is made.

This is the standard which sends a boy to the state finals at Champaign no matter what his place rank in the district: 100 yard dash—:10.3; 220 yard dash—:22.8; 440 yard dash—:52; 880 yard run—2.04; mile run—4:40; 120 yard high hurdles—:15.5; 180 yard low hurdles—:20.8; shot—48 feet; discus—140 feet; high jump—5 feet 10 inches; pole vault—11 feet 8 inches; broad jump—21 feet; 880 yard relay—1:33; mile relay—3:35.

WEDNESDAY OF THIS WEEK the Northwest conference frosh-soph track meet was held at Glenbrook. Next week, along with the results of that meet, will be published the up to date frosh-soph records for the five times the meet has been held, along with the varsity records compiled since the league reorganized in 1938.

Palatine had, up to Wednesday night, taken all four of the previous frosh-soph meets, plus the last seven varsity championships.

The Pirate varsity will be a top heavy favorite to make it eight in a row, but the frosh-sophs were expected to be pushed, and possibly beaten, by Glenbrook.

This year, with the conference meets at Glenbrook on their new track and lighted field, will be the second time in 17 years that the meet has been held anywhere except at Palatine in the case of the varsity competition. Next year it is planned both of the league meets will be held at Grant with a return to Palatine a possibility in 1957 unless some other school gets a new track and field layout.

For the past six years the Northwest principals have handled the details of planning and running the conference track meets. This year the athletic directors and coaches will be in charge and the school administrators will look on as spectators.

LeROY J. KNOEPPEL, former superintendent at Arlington Heights high school and now holding the same job at Proviso, has been asked to serve on a special committee of NCAA to develop "ways and means of better coping with athletic recruiting problems." The committee provides for a man of high school interests, and Knoeppel was the man named for this position.

Last year's NCAA council believed the entire collegiate recruiting situation should be reviewed in light of existing NCAA legislation to determine whether changes should be made to control undesirable recruiting practices.

TOMMY KOUZMANOFF of Arlington Heights, prep sports editor of the Chicago American, has been invited to officiate the North-South all star basketball game at Murray, Kentucky, June 18. Tommy cannot accept the assignment and the honor which goes with it for Illinois high school association forbids any official or coach to participate in any way in all-star games. Even

Cards Host; Favor Leyden Among 10 Teams

Arlington Heights will enter district competition Friday morning at Old Orchard golf course rated behind Leyden of Franklin Park. That forecast was proven Tuesday afternoon when the Eagles avenged a previous loss to the Cardinals by a convincing 10½-4½ score.

Coach Curtis Larsen and his local golfers are hosts to the district this year, a new tournament for the Chicago suburban area. Included are 10 schools, all of them vying for a trophy and 12 medals.

THE MEDALS will go to 4 boys on both winning and second place teams, plus 4 low individual scores. Squads will report at 8 a.m. for instruction with tee-off slated for 8:30.

Scheduled to compete will be Arlington, Maine, Glenbrook, Palatine, Barrington, Crystal Lake, Elgin, Leyden, St. Charles and one boy from Libertyville. There is no limit to number of boys that can be entered with 10 slated to compete for Heights and 5 from Palatine. Sixty-three boys will compete.

State meet will be held the following Friday and Saturday on University of Illinois course at Urbana. Winning teams, plus 2 low individual scorers of all districts will be eligible for the state fnal at Urbana.

LEYDEN is the favorite in Friday's tournament. Just how well Arlington will do remains to be seen. It will be "their own stamping grounds" for the Cardinals, but with a couple of varsity players varying as much as 8 strokes at Old Orchard the result will be greatly in doubt.

Last year Heights finished just behind Hinsdale, which won the state title. In other years, too, Arlington has just missed going to the state.

Other districts are being held at Belleville, Decatur, Jacksonville, Joliet, LaGrange, Peoria, Pinckneyville, East Rockford, Rock Island and New Trier.

District Baseball To Open This Week

Three hundred sixty-five teams including those from forty-two Chicago public high schools are entered in the fifteenth annual IH SA baseball tournament. The downstate teams will first play in fifty-six district and sub-district tournaments from which the winners will advance to seven four-team sectionals.

The seven sectional winners, together with one representative of the Chicago public high schools athletic association, will play for the state championship in the finals to be held in Peoria. District and sub-district tournaments will be played May 13-21, the sectionsls, May 23-28 and the finals at Peoria June 2-3.

Redwings Rally In 9th To Beat State Champs, 3-2

A fine crowd of Arlington Hts. baseball fans watch a real thriller Sunday as the Redwings bested league and state champion Kolski Boosters semipro baseball team. There was tremendous excitement in the last half of the ninth inning as the Redwings came to bat trailing 2-0, and having touched Tom Hoffman, brilliant Kolski pitcher, for only 2 hits. Tom Hoffman is a former University of Illinois star.

In the last of the ninth, Art Sepke, Redwing catcher, lashed a sharp single to center and Charlie Perchak, right fielder, boomed a drive into right. John Overland, first baseman, flied out but Don Frantell, second baseman, lined a single to left center scoring Sepke.

MANAGER Bud Blumenthal went up to pinch hit for Mike Weiszmann, center fielder, and the Kolski's put in Burno Fabris, a left hander, to pitch. Thereupon Blumenthal called in Kenny Jannusch, third baseman and coach, and a right handed batter to pinch hit instead. Jannusch walked as did Hack Danielson, and Bob Carlson, third baseman, followed with a sharp grounder which drove in the winning run.

Although the Kolski's got 10 hits off the pitching of Dick Bokelmann, former St. Louis Cardinal star, he was virtually unhittable in the clutches and in one inning struck out the side. The Redwings, on the other hand, got only 5 hits all day but in the first 2 innings alone hit 5 line drives without getting a run around base. Both Kolski runs were tainted, one being the result of a bobble by short stop Bob Rubom and the other involving a miscue by outfielder Dick Ebeling.

NEXT SUNDAY the Redwings will play Corbin's Woodchucks at Recreation Park at 2:30 p.m. At this point not too much is known about the Woodchucks.

Begin Selecting Boys For Heights Little Leagues

A pitching clinic operated by Guy Bush—that is the big news of the week for Little League moundsmen in Arlington Heights.

Two hour clinic will start at 1:30 p.m. Saturday at Recreation park. All twirlers in Little League program in Heights, Pony league as well as major and minor leaguers, are urged to be present.

Al Willis, state high school association official, has ruled "as long as the clinic is open to the public, high school boys may feel free to attend without forfeiting eligibility."

GUY BUSH, for the information of those of you under 30, was one of the all-time greats of Chicago Cubs pitching staff, capturing the only Chicago victory in the '29 world series. Bush won 177 games in major leagues, and pitched the final home run hit by Babe Ruth.

Bush is associated with a sporting goods company in Chicago, and was brought to Heights through efforts of Arlington's Dudley Hartman.

Other activities of Little League in Heights this week include another session of umpire's clinic at fieldhouse Saturday, May 14, from 4-5 p.m. Another session will be held May 21, same time.

REGULAR MONTHLY board meeting of Little League officials in Arlington will be held Monday, May 16, at 8 p.m., at the fieldhouse.

President Bill Inman reported sale of 1400 tickets to the play, "Silver Whistle," presented by Village Theatre group last week. Little League benefited from the sale. Directing sale of tickets were Mrs. Lester Cordes and Mrs. Donald Hamachek. Mrs. Robert Nicol and Mrs. Glenn Buckley directed sale of refreshments at the play, bringing more money for the baseball program.

PLAYER SELECTION for the teams is the order of business for the coming week. Major league players of last year still within the age limits will automatically return to their same teams this time.

Some minor league players will be moved up to the major league as available positions permit. Some of these players already know they have been selected. Others will be picked in a "player auction" next week.

PONY LEAGUE, including boys 13-15 years of age, will also have many repeats, plus some boys who've grown out of major league. Little League teams are permitted 5 12-year-olds, 5 11-year-olds with the rest of the team made up of 8-9-10-year-olds.

Tryout session of the past several weeks have given managers a chance to look over the boys to determine which ones are ready for major league ball.

Card Frosh 9 Tied By Leyden

Freshman baseball of varsity caliber was on the menu at Leyden Friday when Coach Maurice Klotz' squad played a 2-2 tie, the second such occasion for the first year squad at Arlington Heights high school.

Previous agreement set limit of the game at 7 innings, due to Leyden coach Joe Monk having to preside at a father-sons banquet.

Asta, first man up for Leyden, reached first on an error, followed by a walk to Palade. Asta eventually circled the bases, but was caught at home on a fielder's choice. Palade scored immediately after for Leyden.

RON THILL, Coach Klotz' twirler for the day, homered in the sixth to tie the game for Heights. In the seventh Nickelson and Schumacher singled, the former scoring on an error to put the locals into a 2-1 lead.

In the bottom of the seventh Pios walked, but was caught stealing. Boris flied to right. After swinging twice, Mirell was hit by a pitched ball. He attempted to steal second, was tagged by Bruce Bjorklund, who then dropped the ball.

Asta swung twice, then singled Mirell home with the tying run. Thill gave up just 3 hits, walked 4 and fanned 8.

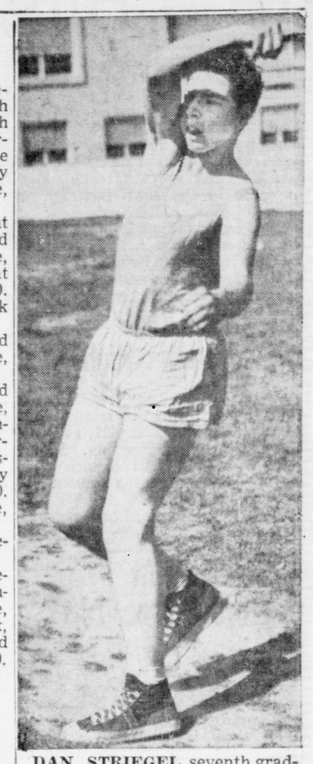

Fans' Preview Of Washington Park Slated For Sunday

Balmoral Jockey Club, which opens its inaugural thoroughbred racing season Monday, May 16, at Washington Park, invited fans to get an unprecedented look at what goes on behind the scenes during a typical racing day.

President Russell L. Reineman issued a general invitation to the public to attend Balmoral's "Open House" Sunday at Washington Park course, from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. Admission will be free.

Highlight of the day's activities will be an unusual hour-long program (from 3 p.m. to 4 p.m.) staged in front of Washington Park's massive stands. It will show fans for the first time how horsemen, jockeys, grooms and officials prepare for a big race. Sportscaster Jack Drees will narrate the entire show.

Two exhibition races will be held, one on Washington Park's famed grass course and the other on the main track.

DAN STRIEGEL, seventh grader at Wheeling school, is determined to follow in big brother Dennis' footsteps. Dennis tosses the shot and discus for Arlington Heights high school. Dan does the same for Wheeling grade school and is doing a darn good job of possibly surpassing his brother's marks in the future.

Dan placed second in discus in Amboy district with a toss of 107' 5". He'll be in state competition Saturday at Bloomington. Dan stands 6' 1", weighs 185, tosses the shot, plays basketball and softball.

Bison Soph Nine Loses To Glenbrook

BY BILL RIPPERGER

Bensenville's frosh-soph baseball team was crushed by Glenbrook's 18 hit barrage Tuesday of last week and fell, 21-14.

4 hits, one a home run, and scored Sadek sparked Glenbrook with 3 of the Spartan's runs. Chuck Christiansen enjoyed a perfect day at the plate for the Bisons with two for two.

Showing evidence of what was to come, the Spartans rapped out six hits in the first inning and scored 10 runs. They scored in each of the 5 following innings, getting single runs in the fifth and sixth innings and 2, 3, and 4 runs in the second, third, and fourth innings, respectively.

Trying to catch the high-spirited Spartans, Bensenville started a drive of their own in the third inning. Scoring seven runs in the third and four in the fourth inning wasn't enough, though, as Glenbrook, determined to hold their lead, triumphed.

Host To Big 10 Relays

Northwestern university will be host to the second annual Big Ten relays to be held at Dyche stadium Saturday afternoon May 14. Every team in the conference has entered the 16-event program that includes six relays of varying distances.

The 100 yard dash has been added to the program this year. Jim Golliday of Northwestern who celebreated his return from military service by winning the century in the Drake relays, will be favored in this event.

One high-light of the program will be the weight men's dash in which only men competing in either the shot put or discus are eligible to enter. Ron Kramer of Michigan will be highly favored to capture the event since Tony Stracka of Winconsin, last year's winner, has graduated.

Another unorthodox event is the one and one half mile run which was won last year by Gene Matthews of Purdue who will not be on hand to defend his title.

BUZZIE POTTS heads the clown parade of Hagen Bros. circus slated to appear Saturday, May 21, at Arlington Heights. Local Kiwanis club is sponsoring the show at the circus grounds on Foundry rd., east of Northwest highway. Two performances will start at 2:15 and 8 p. m.

Speed Ball Throwing Contest In Oak Park

An invitation to thousands of boys in West Chicagoland who love to play baseball and especially those proud of their fast ball throw has been extended by John P. Domeier, president and chairman of the board of directors of fast growing Oak Park Federal Savings.

The contest to find the boys who can throw the speediest ball will take place in Oak Park Federal Saving's parking lot May 18, 19, 20 and the finals will be held Saturday, May 21.

There will be no guess work whatever in determining which boys throw the ball the fastest, because their pitches will be measured with scientific accuracy-electronically controlled on the Blue Cross.

The pitchometer is a big box like mechanism 6 feet long, 5 feet high and 4 feet wide. At one end is a rectangular hole, surrounded by thick padding to prevent rebounds and near misses. It is an adaption of devices used by the armed forces to clock the volocity of projectiles and was designed by Dr. I. M. Levett, an astro-physicist and a director of the Franklin institute.

Just inside the opening in the pitchometer are "electric eyes" spaced a certain distance apart. The thrown ball zips through the first electric eye and starts an electronic timer. When it passes the second beam, the timer is stopped.

The brief interval is recording by a chronograph and instantly translated into miles per hour.

Famous Show Horse Dies In Libertyville

Wensleydale Pilot, one of the great show horses of all time, died last week at Hawthorne-Mellody Farm near Libertyville at the age of 26.

Pilot won the national championship in New York and the international championship in Chicago. Prior to retirement in 1950, he had won 115 blue ribbons and 86 championships, including the coveted Worden Whitney Challenge trophy.

Palatine Runners 5th At De Kalb

Palatine took fifth with 19½ points among 32 schools in the third annual DeKalb Relays last Saturday. The Pirates were minus the services of their ace sprinter, Jim Hess, who is recovering from a pulled leg muscle. The meet was won by Sterling with 57½ points who had a 20 point advantage over Mendota with 37. KeKalb scored 36½ and Freeport 20½, just ahead of the Pirates. Libertyville and Ottawa tied for sixth with 17.

Palatine's two mile medley record, set last year, was broken by DeKalb but the Pirates gained eight points with a second place. Pirate runners were Steve Cornwell and Jim Eldridge at the 440 distance, Roy Hahnfeldt 880, and Leonard Wiese, the mile.

PALATINE TOOK fourths in the high hurdle shuttle, 880 relay and frosh-soph 440. Duane Gordon, Dave Nesset, Jim Penning, and Dave Cornwell ran the hurdles and Dave Wagner, Dave Cornwell, John Dilks, and Alan Eck, the 880 relay. Dave Wagner, Dick Wisner, Douglas Peterson, and Mike Lynch ran on the frosh-soph team.

Palatine's only other place was a tie for fifth in the high jump by Dave Nesset, who jumped 5'9". Larry Ray of Libertyville tied for first at 6 feet. Bill Thompson threw the discus 137', Leonard Rohde the shot 47'4", and Dave Cornwell broad jumped 20'4", but none of them placed in the top five due to unusual competition.

Bill Sims of Wauconda took second in the discus with 145' as a Mendota boy won with 155'. Miller of DeKalb broad jumped 21' 10½". Jim Bowers ran the mile in 4:23.4 just a fraction over the state record.

SATURDAY the Pirates, coached by Dick Welty and Charley Feutz, go to Evanston to the district meet. Palatine's best bets will be Alan Eck in the 220 or 440, Dave Nesset in the high jump, Jim Hess in the 100 yard dash, Leonard Rohde in the shot, Bill Thompson in the discus, and Leonard Wiese in the mile.

Next week the Pirates have a dual meet at Elgin Wednesday and Saturday night engage in a 4 way meet with Grant, Ela-Vernon, and Bensenville at Fox Lake.

Grant Whips Glenbrook, 4-2

Bob Madden pitched 3 hit ball Tuesday as Grant's league leaders whipped Glenbrook 4-2 to remain in a deadlock with Grayslake in the Northwest Suburban Conference race. Grant sewed up the game early with 2 runs in the first and another in the third. Both teams fielded poorly. The defeat eliminated Glenbrook from the race as they suffered their fourth defeat in 10 games. A spectacular fielding play by Fritz Kozlausky of Grant at second base prevented Glenbrook from tying the score in the sixth inning.

Wauconda won their fourth victory in 9 games Tuesday by beating Antioch 4-3. The winning run was walked in by Antioch's pitcher, Swanson, with the bases loaded in the last of the seventh. Vernon Lincoln and Koko Szek singled and Gene Jaskot got life on a third base error to fill the bags with the score tied. Swanson then passed John Schults to force in the winning run.

State & Rand Takes Half Point Lead In Old Orchard Scratch

Old Orchard acreage, and its pro, Ben Riley, are still ahead of the Friday night scratch league when it comes to even par golf. The men have come close to a par round but seem to sort of falter on 1 or 2 holes. So far, playing the ball as it lies and using the long tees has kept par fairly safe.

State and Rand Service remain in first place by ½ point through the ability of L. Arnold and his No. 4 man Haake. They carried the team to 4½ points by both scoring 38's. Webber Paint Co. climbed from 6th to 3rd by making a clean sweep of 6 points. Losing the match was Arlington Pharmacy. Avery Harris shot a 38 to lead his team Kamps Sign Co., to 5 points. This is the team to watch.

Four Teams Scrap For Lead In Rob Roy Tuesday Golf Loop

Pat McDonald's Rob Roy golf course with its added roughs and pin locations coupled with moisture laden air sent scores soaring in Tuesday night's league play.

The hottest match of the night was played between Homer Cokenower and Stan Fill. They stood on the ninth tee, all even with Stan losing when his putt heading dead center for the cup stopped 1 inch short.

Hartman House again displayed their power by running all over the Wheeling Bowl, 5-2. Despite Norm Funk's and Marshall Bolling's match wins for the Bowlers the Hartman House continued to roll on. This week Art Thorsen and Wally Schroeder kept the Hartman gang rolling.

LAST WEEK'S warning to watch out for Prospect Heights Variety Store wasn't heeded. This week they scrambled out a 6-1 over Park Ridge Stop and Sock and took over second from the Park Ridge team. The Variety team gained a point on the leaders and are making their move for the league lead.

Prospect Heights Service Station beat Wulbecker Furniture to the tune of 5½ to 1½. The gas house gang were really burning ethyl to get this one. Stan Fill and Cokenower are the captains of these two and the other matches were so closely played with the breaks in favor of the Service Station.

WEBBER PAINT climbed all over Michael's I. G. A. in a one sided 6 to 1 win. Len Arnold, captain of the Paint team, found the greens a little rough on him as he slid to a 3 over par 39. Vince Hoffman was able to stop Dick Brodnan in this match which was a big factor in the victory. Little Brodnan is a big point getter and when he is stopped the opponents have a chance to get the lion's portion of the points.

Kirchhoff Insurance trounced Dunteman Dairy, 6 to 1. A couple of halved matches accounted for the losers 1 point and the rest was no contest. The dairy men better start drinking the milk instead of peddling it. This is their second bad week and a chance at a Paddock tourney place will require some good golf from here on.

L-NOR CLEANERS went back into business by winning over Prospect Heights Pharmacy 6½ to ½. Johnny Brennan, sponsor and captain of the Pharmacy, will probably not be on very good terms with Virg Rolfs, sponsor and captain of the Cleaners.

Ehler and Wenborg increased the value of their team stock as they rolled over helpless Smith & Dawson. Doc Soltz brought home his match, the 3 team points and also low net when he scored a one sided victory. Doc must have put eyes on his golf balls. Notice to Les Moodie: Check Doc's ball next week before you play him.

Next week Michael's I. G. A. will have an opportunity to try to stop the Hartman House.

They Criticize Our Wives For Taking Advantage of Easy Living

by BILL DILLINGHAM

Europeans say that the American housewife has life too easy. Women from every country of the continent are under the impression that American married women can't keep house.

"Show me the American woman who will scrap the dirt from her husband's shirts. They use machines and fancy gadgets!" many European women say.

"How many wives in America can make children's clothes, or even a dress?" One encounters this attitude quite frequently.

IN THE FINAL analysis, the American housewife is envied and criticized (a frequent combination) because she does not do things the hard way. The fact that a washing machine will do a better job and keep a woman alive longer is not regarded as valid evidence.

For hundreds of years the women of Europe have been sewing, scrubbing, baking bread and wearing themselves out proving to their neighbors that they are good, industrious people.

American influence, however, is slowly breaking through and greater numbers of housewives are defecting.

THE RESPECTABILITY of the washing machine has been almost won, although American housewives are still attacked because they use canned and frozen foods, buy their cakes at the bakery and do not make Junior's corduroy pants by hand.

Next on the list of half-respectable housekeeper methods is the use of concentrated broths and packet soups. Up until just a few years ago a European housewife would avoid letting her neighbor witness the purchase of such items, but now they are half-way accepted.

THE ANTIPATHY to canned food has even entered some European languages and been developed into verbal insults. One housewife will call another, for instance, a "Tinned can wife." This implies that she tries to get much out of her social relationships without contributing anything.

Aids for the European housewives are still far short of the number American women use every day. Prices for such conveniences, too, are much higher in Europe. But the question of price is not the final deciding factor. The American mentality follows the line that if a pressure cooker will save fifty per cent in gas expenses, eventually it will pay for itself. But the European sees the cooker in a window, notes the pricetag, and decides only that it is more expensive than conventional utinsels.

Besides the feeling among European women that a good housewife is one who does her work without the aid of modern gadgets, a strong factor against "the American way" is the general reluctance to try anything new.

Lessons In .... English

by W. L. GORDON

Words Often Misused

Do not say, "The clothes have been laundried," as so often heard. The correct preterit is "laundered."

Do not say, "Not one of the children has studied his or her lesson." Omit "or her." "Not one of the children has studied his lesson" is sufficient.

Do not say, "He had no other faults but those of a weak character." Say, "than those of a weak character."

"Forceful" means "full of force; effective." "Charles has a forceful personality." "Forcible" means "affected by force." "The police made a forcible entry."

Do not say, "They were in a hurry to open up the package." Omit "up."

"Brothers" applies to those who are brothers by birth. "Brethren" indicates fraternal relationship in some organization.

Words Often Mispronounced

Lichen (a moss). Pronounce liken, the i as in lie, accent first syllable.

Renew. Pronounce the ew as in few, not re-noo.

Aviso (notification; dispatch-boat). Pronounce a-vi-zo, a unstressed, i as in vice, o as in no, accent second syllable.

Dishabille (state of being dressed in careless style). Pronounce dis-a-bel, e as in be, accent last syllable.

Largess (liberal gift). Pronounce lard, e as in jest, accent first syllable.

De trop (no wanted; in the way). Pronounce de-tro, e unstressed, o as in no, accent second syllable.

Word Study

"Use a word three times and it is yours." let us increase our vocabulary by mastering one word each day. Words for this lesson: Incubus; anything that tends to weigh down or discourage. (Pronounce first u as in unit, accent first syllable). "Superstition is an incubus many people have to combat."

Tenet; any principle, belief, or doctrine, held as true. "Free speech is one of the essential tenets of Americanism."

Card Nine Loses To York

Arlington Heights high school varsity baseball squad was no match for York Thursday, as the Elmhurst batters punched 11 hits and 12 runs across, including a 6-run blast the opening inning.

The Cardinals scored their only run in the sixth when Stan Fletcher reached first on an error, and Dave Lynk brought him home with a double. Otherwise it was 28 men batting in 7 innings, just 7 above the minimum.

Losing pitcher was Doug Winkelman, who saw just one-third of an inning. Getts relieved him, then Alan Smeby and John Sujack.

HOFFMAN WALKED as first man up for York in the opening frame. Then followed 3 singles, a double and hit batsman. Score, 6-0. York tallied another pair in the third on an error and 2 singles.

Two singles and a triple brought in 3 more for the winners in the fifth with the final score in the sixth made via a walk and a double.

Crew Cut

What with summer weather coming on, and many people thinking of trimming their lawns, the subject of the care of one's dog also enters the picture.

From the dog's point of view "crew cuts" for the summer are not a good idea, contrary to what people may think. A dog is generally miserable with his whole coat clipped close to the skin. The short hairs prick him and flies and other insects can get at him easier. If he is a Collie or German Shepherd or any other breed of dog accustomed to a heavy coat, he may have rather a peculiar reaction to the whole affair.

Nature knows what it is doing. A dog, naturally, sheds part of his coat in the spring. The breeds mentioned above shed their heavy winter undercoats. Owners can assist by brushing out dead hairs. What is left acts as insulation against the heat and protects against sudden cold. Even in hot weather, believe it or not, a long haired dog with a "crew cut" can catch a cold, which might even lead to distemper in one form or another.

OF GENERAL INTEREST hereabouts is the sixth annual tracking test, to be held by the North Shore dog training club Sunday, May 22, starting at 7:30 a.m. on the Arthur T. McIntosh estate west of Palatine.

These tests will be held as part of the 15th annual obedience trials given by the above club on the same day at the field house of the Lake Forest college, Lake Forest.

By their very nature the tracking tests, of course, are held outdoors and some of the dogs entered in the event are also entered in the regular obedience classes held at Lake Forest later in the day. The regular obedience classes had a limit as to the number of dogs that could be entered in the various classes, and it is interesting to note that both in the novice A and novice B class a full entry of 60 in each has been received. In the open A and open B class with a limit of 40 dogs in each, the open A missed out by 7 entries of reaching the 40 dog limit for the class.

The open B class was filled with the utility dog entries totaling 26 out of a possible 30 limit. There are seven dogs entered in the tracking tests. In passing, it might be well to mention that the regular classes held at Lake Forest are starting at approximately 9 a. m. and will last the better part of the day, in order to give people in this and other areas an excellent opportunity to observe some very fine obedience trained dogs at work.

"DO - IT - YOURSELF" enthusiasts must take special care to select safe paints and supervise their small children and pets to discourage chewing of painted surfaces and foreign substances.

Many cases of lead poisoning occur when small youngsters and dogs eat chips of paint containing a high percentage of lead. The condition is particularly dangerous because it develops gradually, and signs of illness may not be clear-cut until the condition is very severe.

As a step in preventing the danger of such poisoning a new safety measure for paints has been developed by the American academy of pediatrics in cooperation with the American standards association. The protective measure calls for a warning label to be placed on the cans of paint containing more than 1% of lead. This type of label, if universally accepted and used, will do much to alleviate a condition which has many times proved very serious.

OF INTEREST to many people is the fact that although in this country the Beagle hound has risen to the point of becoming the most popular dog based on AKC registration, and is principally developed to hunt rabbits, it is used in some areas of the Union of South Africa to hunt Jackals.

Speaking of a dog's loyalty to its owner, brings to mind loyalty of a dog to another dog, which was brought to light recently when a collie, owned by Mrs. Irene Hughes of Melbourne, Australia, carried food to two others trapped in a mine shaft for two weeks. The daily routine and route of the dog soon attracted the attention of the owner, who in turn rescued the trapped dogs.

Relieved

A writer for The Sporting News says that pitcher Bob Turley of the Yankees showed a strange reaction to his failure to make the No-Hitters' Hall of Fame against the White Sox. Turley seemed relieved over the fact that the White Sox had made one hit. "I don't care about pitching a no-hit game," he said. "It takes too much out of you, emotionally and physically. And there are the jinxes that have murdered so many no-hit heroes. The book is full of them."

Elk Grove News

Eighth Graders Have Busy Week

The first week in May was a busy week for the eighth grade pupils of Elk-Grove school. Last Thursday they presented "No More Homework," a 3 act comedy. All eighth grade pupils participated in the play. The young people did an outstanding piece of work, and the audience enjoyed an evening of fine entertainment. The profit the pupils made on their play will be used for their class gift.

The week was climaxed Saturday with a field trip to Springfield and New Salem. The purpose of the trip was to see the capital city where the activities of state government are carried on, and in this way better understand the work of the government. It was to make work studied in the social studies class room become more meaningful to the pupils.

The trip was an educational grammar school tour sponsored by the Edward Cocoran co. Transportation was by rail and sightseeing buses.

The pupils visited the state capital where they saw both the Senate and the House of Representatives and heard a description of the work of the law makers. At Lincoln's home in Springfield, they caught a glimpse of how people lived in the 19th century. They stood on sacred ground at Lincoln's tomb and listened as guides showed them this monument and explained its construction. The trip was concluded with a visit to New Salem, the frontier home of Abraham Lincoln. An understanding of Frontier life was acquired by the students as they visited this reproduction of a frontier town stopping at the post office, seeing an old fashioned doctor's office and visiting the other homes and offices that were all part of Abraham Lincoln's daily life.

The eighth graders worked for this trip earning $210 through special projects to pay for their expenses. They were accompanied by Mrs. Coston, the 8th grade teacher, Mr. Rabbitini, the 6th grade teacher, and Mrs. Edward Fischer, mother of one of the pupils.

Cub Scout News

The cub scouts have been organized and their program is well under way. The Elk Grove cub scouts are pack 58, which consists of 4 dens of 5 to 8 boys each. The dens have meetings once a week in the homes and once each month a pack meeting of all dens is held at Elk Grove school. Den mothers are: den 1, Mrs. Lemke and Mrs. Woss; den 2, Mrs. Adams and Mrs. Mollenkamp; den 3, Mrs. Malanik and den 4, Mrs. Ukleja. Each den has a chief who is a boy scout. The dues are 10 cents each week; 5 cents goes to the pack, and 5c stays in the den for supplies and equipment. Refreshments, such as cookies and soft drinks, are served at den meetings. Last month cub scout dens worked on a western theme and at the pack meetings each den put on a skit. Mother's day presents were made at den meetings. The next pack meeting will have a circus theme, — the boys may make costumes and will have a parade. The cub master is Warren Springer; assistant cub master is Thure Mortenson. The pack committee consists of institutional representative, Richard Adams; secretary-treasurer, Roy Hightower; advancement man, Frank Ukleja; activities man, Charles Lemke; pack committee chairman, Paul Cappettilli, and parent contact man, Don Mollenkamp. GI Home Loans

Chicago veterans administration regional office has sold more direct home loans to private investors during the past year than it did during the previous two and a half years, Robert D. Beer, manager, announced.

Since April 1, 1954, VA here has sold 239 direct loans totaling $1,879,650. Up until that date VA had sold only 166 direct loans totaling $1,246,375. Total sales to date are 405 loans totaling $3,126,025.

Beer said that the current increase in direct loans sales parallels the surge in GI housing generally which began early in 1954.

Roses Grow Best With Plenty Of Sunshine

by JOHN H. BICKET
Assistant Farm Adviser

The landscaping plan for any home will include many various types and kinds of plants it is almost certain that roses will be included in nearly every plan.

Roses attain their best growth in full sunshine, but good results may be obtained if they are exposed to sunshine for at least 6 to 8 hours a day. If it is impossible to avoid shade, it is far better to have it on the plants in the late afternoon.

IF PLANTS are in morning shade, the foliage will remain wet with dew for a few hours longer than if in direct sunlight and the presence of moisture on the leaves is a very favorable contition for the development of several leaf diseases.

Any good garden soil will produce good roses. If good grass, shrubs and other plants will grow it is practically certain that no special treatment will be necessary. If the soil is extremely heavy it might be rewarding to mix organic matter in, to a good spade depth.

WHEN PLANTING the roses dig holes 12 to 18 inches deep depending upon the size of the plant and place the bud union approximately 2 inches below the surface.

Roses require large amounts of water. Even when rainfall is considered plentiful occasional watering will usually be beneficial. The best method of adding water is to apply a small amount over a longer period of time allowing it to soak or penetrate 8 to 12 inches.

Horticultural Specialties Are A Big Industry Here

Growing horticultural specialty crops is a bigger business than most people realize.

R. A. Kelly, horticultural marketing specialist at the University of Illinois college of agriculture, reports that the industry hires about 250,000 people and sells a billion and a half dollars worth of products a year.

HORTICULTURAL specialties include florticulture—mainly cut flowers and ornamental horticulture — shrubs, fruit stocks, sod, bulbs, flowers and vegetable seeds sold for replanting.

In 1950, according to Kelly, more than 23 million dollars' worth of these specialties were sold in Illinois, compared with eight million dollars worth of fruit and 14 million dollars worth of vegetables.

COOK COUNTY is the leading specialty crop producer in Illinois, but there are important gladiolus-growing areas in Kankakee County and around the Sterling-Rock Falls area. Union county is noted for flowers grown in open fields.

Illinois has also been a good market for these specialty crops. Kelly reports that of the ten leading markets Chicago ranked first in 1950 in sales of cut flowers and fifth in sales of ornamentals. Per capita sales of cut flowers in Chicago were 155 per cent of the nation's average, and per capita sales of ornamentals were 116 per cent.

COMPETITION is keen in the industry, Kelly says. Flowers are now being shipped long distances, and production is expanding in the southern states from Florida to California and along the Atlantic coast to Virginia. Flowers no longer have to be grown near the markets.

Kelly recommends that Illinois growers concentrate on those crops for which they have a special advantage, such as potted plants or shrubs, which are expensive to ship long distances, and greenhouse crops, such as snapdragons and roses, that are better in quality when grown in greenhouses than when grown in the open.

May Tree Feeding Means Less Work For Home Owners

Maytime is a good time to keep favorite trees from turning into Maypoles.

This month is ideal for serving extra victuals to trees so hungry they are losing their figures. The weather and the "ground rules" are just right to save the weekend gardener a lot of energy. Soil is moist and more easily workable than later in the season when heat and dryness harden up the ground, according to B. D. Stamp, field representative of the Davey Tree Expert Co.

Dishing out arboreal blue-plate specials calls for perforating numerous holes ten to twelve inches deep in the ground. This can be a real job without the aid of expensive and hard-to-come-by heavy duty electric drills used by professional tree men.

Most often the amateur tree doc has to resort to the old-fashioned punch bar, actually any crowbar with a point. The do-it-yourself fan can make a punch bar from an old auto driveshaft obtained at the local car wreckers. Have it cut to size and the point sharpened.

Holes are punched about a foot apart over the entire root area, roughly equivalent to the branch spread. Each hole gets about three-quarters of an ounce of tree food high in nitrogen content. Then it is filled with peat moss, shredded manure or garden soil. A good feeding invigorates the trees, encourages lush foliage and enables them to better withstand insect attacks and searing droughts.

Legion Annual Youth Convention At Hanson Park

For 33 years the American Legionand its auxiliary have also, among many projects, sponsored youth activities as an important part of our Child Welfare programs.

Again on May 15, the posts and units of the 9th district will sponsor an annual youth convention and parade, comprising almost every type of recognized youth organization at Hanson Park stadium in Chicago.

We consider this a part of our contribution toward combating so-called child and youth delinquency and toward building sound American citizenship.

Bill Groh, Child Welfare officer of Merle Guild post 208, especially urges parents and adults interested in youth activities to relax and be youthful again for a day.

The other 2 members are Terry Gates, bass, second from left, and Gordon Brown, tenor sax. The song advocates the use of buses to overcome the traffic jams in the cities, and has recently been recorded. The song is also available in sheet music.

by ROBERTA LEE

Q. Are all the plates removed from a dinner table before serving the dessert?

A. Yes, the table should be plateless. The salt cellars, pepper pots, unused flat silver, are taken off on the serving tray, and the crumbs brushed off each place at the table with a folded napkin onto a tray held under the table edge.

Q. Is it always necessary to answer a wedding invitation?

A. Certainly, I do. But only if the perfume is good, and the scent is kept just to a "suggestion," and not a "shout."

Q. What is the proper way to introduce a young man to an elderly man?

A. The young man should be presented to the older man, mentioning the elder man's name first, as, "Mr. Marshall (who is seventy) this is Mr. Hudson (or Edward Hudson)."

Q. When there are two envelopes enclosing the wedding invitation, should anything be written on the inner evelope?

A. Yes; it whould bear only the name of the person to whom it is sent, not the address.

Q. Is it considered proper for a man to write social letters on his business letterheads?

A. No; he should keep some plain white paper on hand for this purpose.

Q. If one enters a bus or other public conveyance, and sits down next to a friend who is reading, is it all right to start talking?

A. The friend who is reading should take the initiative here, and decide whether to continue reading or engage in conversation.

Q. Are relatives and close friends supposed to send gifts to a girl who has just announced her engagement?

A. No.

Old Car Museum

A new room dedicated to old cars was opened today at Chicago's Museum of Science and Industry, 57th and South Shore drive. Entitled "Cars of Yesteryear" the exhibit presents a selection of antique cars chosen for their synoptic representation of the technical development of the automobile during slightly more than half a century.

Each of the 14 cars in this collection is typical of its particular period and represents the mechanical genius of its day. All have been restored in the museum shops to pristine condition and could be driven under their own power.

Jewel Tea Grows From Horse, Buggy To Mammoth Operation

In January, 1899, an enterprising young man started out with a single horse and wagon in Chicago with a capital of $700.

Since then, the horse-and-buggy operation of Jewel Tea Co. has mushroomed into a business which had a total sales of 1954 of $275 million. More than 2150 Jewel route salesmen serve a million homes in 42 states.

In 1932 Jewel purchased a chain of 77 food stores in Chicago. There are now 175 super food marts in Chicago and suburbs.

"Designed today for tomorrow—to give our customers the best service." These are the words of a member of the Jewel team when queried about the new multi-million dollar dry grocery distribution center in Melrose Park.

In this huge distribution center—the largest handling dry groceries on one floor in the world—his words are brought to life. Every minute tons of foodstuffs are flowing from trailers and box cars, loaded on pallets, and moved swiftly and quietly to marshalling areas on the docks.

National Dividend

A regular quarterly divident of 40 cents per share on the $5 par value common shares of National Tea Co. was declared by company directors meeting on May 2. The dividend is payable June 1 to shares of record May 16, 1955.

National's consolidated sales for the four weeks ended April 23 were up 13.35 per cent over the same period a year ago. The sales for the fourth period of 1955 were $43,048,256, compared with $37,976,616 last year.

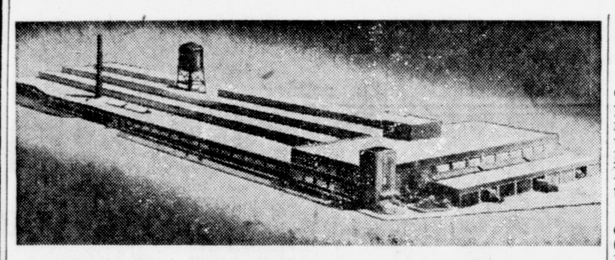

Sales for the year to date totaled $170,943,730 as compared with $152,825,144 for the corresponding period in 1954. (BB

'Ham' Given Award

Reynald E. Thompson, 117 S. Alvert st., Mount Prospect, is one of the 300 additional radio amateurs named to receive certificates of merit for emergency service during the 1954 hurricanes. Late reports of amateur emergency communications during the hurricanes indicate a total of more than 1,500 amateurs participated — as compared with the 1,200 announced last month.

The citations were voted by the judges of the annual Edison radio amateur award sponsored by General Electric's tube department. In granting the hurricane citations, the judges pointed out that an unparalleled number of amateur radio operators joined in setting up emergency radio networks during hurricanes "Carol," "Edna" and "Hazel." Some Social Security Benefits Still Available

Survivors of workers under social security who died after 1939 and before September 1950, and who had some credits but were not insured under the then existing rules may, possibly, be eligible for monthly benefits now, under a very special provision of the security act, according to Mrs. Hilda E. Eidman, district manager of the social security office in Oak Park.

The 1954 amendments permit payment of monthly benefits only, in the cases of workers who died after 1939 and before September 1950, and who had at least six quarters of coverage. Payment could not be made in those cases, at the time, because the then existing rules required a greater number of credits, depending on when the worker's death occurred.

SURVIVORS of such workers who may now be eligible for monthly benefits are persons who would have been eligible at the time of the worker's death and who still meet the eligibility requirements. Such persons may be unremarried widows who were then or are now age 65, children who still are under 18 and unmarried, and age 65 parents who were dependent on the worker when the worker died.

Benefits in such cases will be calculated under the then existing formula and then will be given the successive automatic increases that have been granted by the subsequent amendments.

Bill To Control Gyp Automobile Dealers

The Illinois legislature is now considering a bill to provide for control over the installment buying of automobiles.

In Cook county alone, there have been in the past year 3,000 complaints concerning abuses in installment contracts, many of which were clearly fraudulent and most of which were clearly anti-social since present laws made it possible for fast-talking, ambitious salesmen to take advantage of unsuspecting buyers of automobiles.

The bill as introduced is based upon the uniform bill proposed by the National Conference of Finance companies. The measure is strictly non-political and is needed for the protection of thousands of unsuspecting automobile purchasers.

Sternest measure of the bill is a porvision calling for state licensing of sales finance company.

In the Shadow of + + + The Steeple

by William O. McGill

The department of social welfare of the Church Federation of Greater Chicago has just published an excellent "Pastor's Guide to the Use of Social Services." It was needed.

Human need ranges far: Marital difficulties readily shade into psychiatric needs; manifestations of delinquent behavior require more than a simple choice between "stern" or "easy" treatment; persons who need nursing Homes or child-care homes sometimes make mistakes in selection because they lack knowledge of the basis on which to select.

GOOD WILL is not enough when the minister seeks to counsel persons in deep need. In many cases, the most important contribution he can make is to recognize that some personal problems are beyond his sphere; then he ought to be able to tell them where to find help.

This matter may be a little better organized for the Roman Catholic or Lutheran who needs help than it is for the Methodist or Baptist, or whatever. Catholic charities and Lutheran charities are more closely organized groups of agencies than the Church Federation's Department of Social Welfare. But the first line of attack on any personal problem is referral. Some Lutheran and Roman Catholic pastors may be like those Presbyterians and Unitarians who do not recognize when they are beyond their depth.

PASTORS are not intent upon playing the psychiatrist. There are a lot of persons to whom the thought that they should take their family problems to, say, Lutheran charities, would be a severe blow. "Why, we maek a contribution to the Charities every year so they will be able to take care of poor people! What do you mean, pastor, that we should make an appointment with the charities to get help? We have enough money! We don't need help!"

(For "Lutheran Charities," you can of course read "Catholic Charities," "Association for Family Living," "Community Referral Service," or a number of other agencies.)

In the ten years since the end of the war, the financial needs of social welfare has steadily diminished. In Wheeling township, I think I read this not long ago, there were no direct relief disbursements last year. Even in Chicago, most relief is assistance to the aged or dependent children.

As we grow more and more alert to human problems, the need of social services multiplies. What, for example, do we do when the police pick up a boy, over-drunk, under-age, and quite incautious in handling an automobile? It may or may not be wise to get him out of it quickly and simply. It may or may not be wise to let him take his medicine. The people to decide are not overwrought parents, nor police officers who may be amendable to "reason" or who may stiffen their backs and hew to the line of self-righteous duty.

None of these are easy matters with which to deal. You and a lot of others who contribute to such organizations and agencies have prepared arms of help and understanding. They help the pastors who come into contact with human need to know where to advise people that help may be found. These agencies stand ready to help those who come to them—and to seek out, through their public relations program, some of those who ought to come to them.

Bark Beetles Are Double Threat To The Stately Elms

Death is riding on beetle-back through the elm trees of the United States and Canada.

Elm bark beetles and the dread Dutch elm disease are combining for another summer slaughter. Both the beetles and the fungous disease would be unimportant by themselves, but together they have taken a terrible toll of elm trees, according to F. R. Lancaster, technical adviser of the Davey Tree Expert Co.

The disease could not spread from tree to tree without the beetle. And the beetle could not inflict too much damage were not its victims weakened by the disease. Dying trees are preferred breeding places of the beetles.

Boring into the bark, the beetles make galleries where the females make channels in the inner bark. The fungus is carried in and out of the tree by the beetles and fungous spores flourish in the egg galleries and beetle passageways.

By overlapping of the beetle many larvae can completely ring the elm's growth tissue and thus kill it. The fungous disease can kill a tree rapidly in a few weeks, or slowly from one year to the next.

In Illinois, for example, the beetle-borne disease spread from a single tree in 1950 through 55 counties and to the Wisconsin border last year. Badly-infected trees must be removed and burned as the beetles and disease will remain in the dead and dying wood.

All elm trees in the neighborhood, both public and privately owned, should be sprayed with DDT. Annual spray programs will protect the trees' health.

Gems Of Thought

GENEROSITY AND SELFISHNESS

He who is afraid of being too generous has lost the power of being magnanimous. The best man or woman is the most unselfed.

THE MAILMAN'S CORNER

BY LELAND ELLIS TRUXELL

Crutches are used by physically handicapped people as a means of getting around. Unfortunately, the use of crutches is not limited to those people alone.

There are all sorts of useful crutches, such a taking notes to recall ideas you may have, making up a grocery list, a book containing the birthdays of friends and relatives which in these times are a necessity; but there are other types of crutches which should never be used because they weaken character and lead to feelings of inferiority, helplessness and defeat.

SO FAR as within us lies, we should develop our characters and personalities to a point of absolute independence from other people. We should find thestrength within ourselves to bear hardship, sorrow and loneliness to strive for success, financial independence, freedom from fear and self confidence. So long as we depend on others for help, we are wearing crutches and contributing to personal frustrations, hatreds and incompetence. Too many people like to remain under the protection and guidance of others because is is the easiest way of life.

Such people never know the great creative urges, the power and strength that comes from meeting life on its own terms, overcoming its problems and accepting the responsibilities which life offers. As one fellow on my route puts it: "There is joy in acheivement, strength in overcoming, hope in success; but the feeling that comes from using crutches, leaning on the strength and ability of others, is one of miserable discomfort, a feeling of failure and finally hopeless despair."

IF YOU WEAR mental or personality crutches, if you can't now stand on your own feet, try throwing those crutches away. Lift up your spirit, be sufficient unto yourself, face your problems with help only from within yourself. Soon you will find yourself lifted out of the misery of dependence to the great, thrilling experience of having conquered life, vanquished fear, and won the respect of yourself and your fellowmen.

Dinning Sister Revives Trio Of Recording Fame

by CHARLES HAYES

The famous Dinning Sisters—all one of them—live in Elk Grove township.

The popular recording and theater stars whose songs have been in demand for more than a decade, are now making a spectacular come-back with new recordings.

And the Sisters' triumph is really the success of one sister who bought the name 3 months ago and is forging ahead on her own.

Record sessions, radio and TV appearances are carefully sandwiched in for the attractive redhead who is mother of 4 young children.

HER NEWEST Essex recordings are: "Mama He Treats Your Daughter Mean," "Goofus," "Drifting and Dreaming," "Bo Bo Diddlie," and "Baby We're Through," whch she wrote herself.

If you're wondering how one sister can sound like 3 so talented ones, the secret is in multiple recording.

"When I decided to try and revive the group, I auditioned other girls," explained Jean. "None of them seemed to work out."

One day, while experimenting with a wire recorder, she discovered that she could re-record her voice and create the illusion of a group.

It wasn't easy.

"Except for my husband's encouragement, I never would have gone out on my own," she laughed. "When I sang with my sisters, I was afraid to even sing two bars alone."

THE OTHER Dinnings are thrilled with Jean's success. The last disc they cut together was "Keep Your Promise Willy Thomas," in 1953. The girls got their big break in 1940 when 14 years old. NBC in Chicago signed them to a 5 year contract, and they quickly became stars, making records, appearing on radio shows, in night clubs, and theaters.

They actually started when only 9 years old doing amatuer contests, standing on a box in order to reach the microphone.

At the height of their careers, the trio played the State-Lake and Chicago theaters.

Jean Dinning is also doing a single as well as Sister act. Her next record will be "I Don't Mean Maybe," and another recording artist will sing one of Jean's new compositions, "You're Growing Up," which she wrote for her daughter.

She has made frequent TV appearances, including the Howard Miller show and Bandstand Matinee.

THE MACKS have lived in their country home southwest of Mount Prospect for 2½ years and ruefully admit it was the mammoth yard that originally attracted them.

"We're not so sure now," grinned Jean, who has become adept at wheeling an electric lawn mower. "But we love it here."

She has no trouble maintaining both a home and career. When her work takes her from home, she entrusts the children to a reliable baby sitter who lives across the way.

Jean, like many singing stars, isn't completely happy with much of the music that the public seems to be buying now. But she is firm in her belief that rhythm and blues are two of the best things that ever happened to American music.

Her favorite record artists: McGuire Sisters, Crew Cuts, Hi Lo's, Patti Page, and Pat Boone a new male vocalist.

Although Jean Dinning has a successful career ahead of her, she's serious when she says:

"I'm a mother first, a singer last."

QUITE CONTRARY

BY MARY

We have mentioned several times before that we consider ironing one of those chores conceived to drive the old housewife to suicide. We watch the papers assiduously for such gory things as notes from houseworkers who have taken their own lives and have named ironing as the cause. So far we have had no luck at all but we think that those who have gone so far as to help themselves off the mortal coil, if they are feminine, really reached the breaking point over the ironing.

They just think they are broke, disillusioned, unlucky in love or forsaken by the rest of the human race, it is really the ironing that has forced them to the breaking point.

For instance, only today we spent hours pushing our nice new light weight iron over shirt after shirt and blouse after blouse and dress after dress and became so depressed by our thoughts and the news on the radio that we intend spending the night building our own private bomb shelter. It will be sort of a cross between a fox hole and a groundhog burrow.

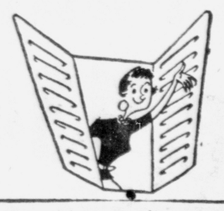

We listen to that old fashioned thing, the radio, while we are engaged on our most tiresome task mentioned at some length previously. We understand that some high placed official in Thailand, we looked it up on the globe, has stated that World War III is inevitable. This cheered us up considerably as there is nothing more nerve-wracking than uncertainty. We like things to be put right on the line for us and this certainly was put. The big wheel went on to say with utmost confidence that the free powers, meaning us we hope, would win. We felt that his confidence was well put and we cheered somewhat.

Then we sat down to read an old newspaper, we like our news well digested, which said that when our own bombers came in from the Pacific and the west coast had not been notified, that California and points west (what is wester than California?) went into a swoon and called for a full scale air alert. However the note that gave us pause for thought was the fact that Neveda ignored the whole thing.

I seems that the man on duty in Nevada was new at the job and didn't know what to do with the news that bombers were approaching over the ocean. Migoodness, we thought, how are the boys in Chicago and suburbs? Are they up on things? Do they know how to make the air raid siren sire? Are they new on the job? Should we read up on things and give them a little post graduate work?

Lethargy has once more set in, we have called off the ironing for another week. Mildew is better than misery any time.

JUST AROUND THE CORNER

from Patty McArdle

Dear Peg:

My happy Mother's Day started out very early in the morning with Megan and Bridget carrying a huge package wrapped in florists' paper into the bedroom. I took the package from them, and after reading the two lovely cards, one a "to our Mother" card and the other a "to my wife on Mother's Day" card, opened the present and saw my beautiful, beribboned plant—mums as bright yellow as the early morning sunshine. It was a wonderful way to wake up, and what's more I could have had my breakfast in bed, my dear.

That's right, Bob offered to prepare it and bring it to me. However, I declined the invitation, after considering the fact that Megan and Bridget would either be sitting or climbing around beside me eating my breakfast right out from under my fork. Instead, I hopped out of bed, got into my clothes and went to the kitchen to cook breakfast. Over our orange juice, waffles and scrambled eggs, we discussed our plans for the day.

IF IT HAD BEEN WARMER, there would have been no discussion and we would simply have taken our picnic and gone to the beach for the day. However, as it was 56 degrees outside that plan was out and our problem was to find a pleasant and generally appealing substitute. I suggested driving out to Morton Arboretum, as I'm sure that the flowers, shrubs and trees must be spectacular at this time of the year. Bob agreed with me (he had to, since it was Mother's Day and Mothers get to do whatever they want to on that day!) Megan and Bridget did not agree with me—they didn't know what I was taking about, but they did know that it didn't sound a bit like "kiddieland" which was their nomination for the activity of the day. I vetoed "kiddieland" but agreed to Lincoln Park zoo and a picnic.

I was glad that I'd thought to stick overall and warmer jackets in the car as it was very windy and cold in the park—probably because it's so near the lake. Before starting the expedition through the park, we had a ride on the merry-go-round and the kiddie train ("Mama" and "Daddy" have as much fun on these things as the children.)

* * *

THE FIRST BUILDING we saw was the monkey house. You know, I never get over the feeling, when I look at one of those animals, that they're looking right back at me and are a lot more amused than I. I always enjoy the lions and tigers—such majestic and mysterious creatures. As one big tiger stalked back and forth in his cage, a man standing next to Bridget exclaimed, "Wow! That's a big cat!"

"Him not a cat—him a tigah!" Bridget said disgustedly, looking at the spectator as though he had rocks in his head.

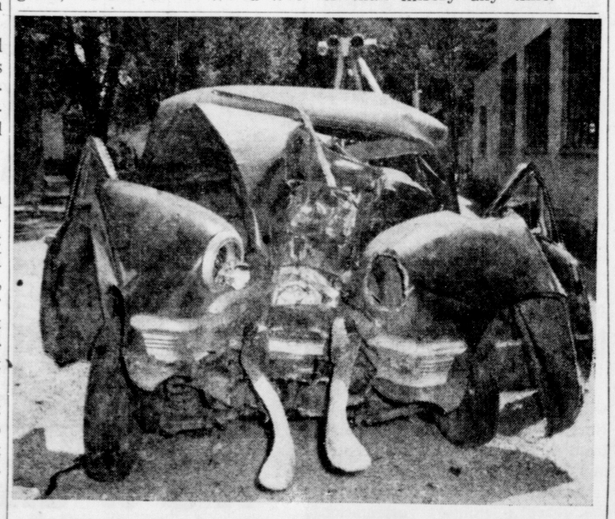

We also visited the bird house and saw all the animals outside: bears, a camel, llamas, foxes and deer. We were in the conservatory—a marvelous building housing tropical trees, shrubbery and flowers. We saw the most beautiful orchids in lavender, white, brown and yellow.

OF ALL THE ANIMALS we saw, Megan wanted most to visit the reptiles. I kept hoping that she would forget them, but no she kept at us until we went into the reptile house. I cannot understand why she loves to see snakes, lizards, turtles and alligators, when I can't bear to look at them. Honestly, there are the most dreadful python and anaconda in that building—see! When I get in there I can't help but look at them.

After our picnic lunch, wen rented a boat and rowed around the lagoon. Megan loved to row (remember, she learned on the river at "Nana's" last summer). We had a grand Mother's Day and actually got off quite lightly: 2 balloons, 3 cotton candies (I love the stuff), 3 taffy apples (Bob loves the stuff), 4 pop corns (Bob and I love the stuff). Hope your day was as nice as mine.

My love,
Patty.

Death Car! Gale J. Lyon, 1840 N. Whipple, Chicago, was killed last week, Wednesday, when his auto, pictured above, went out of control around a curve on Milwaukee ave., near Palatine rd., and hit a culvert. Arlington Fender and Body Shop cleared the wreckage.

Ministers Demand End Of Elmhurst Gambling

Enforcement of ordinances against gambling in Elmhurst was demanded of the city council last week by the Elmhurst Ministerial association.

In a letter to the council, the association called attention to gambling in the city, "especially bingo games," and asked enforcement of the city's ordinances.

Keep 'Em Out

I know the merchants are fighting this but how about putting stickers on all cars with no Mt. Prospect stickers to keep other towners from taking our parking spaces near N.W.? It would be a source of revenue and help us.

I have a husband who has heart trouble and he has to walk over a mile if he doesn't get a pick up. To see all of those out of town cars makes us very angry.

Let's find out if this is the will of the people or of a favored few?

Do these people necessarily do all their shopping here? They do not—because I know 3 of them personally—they do it in their towns Friday nights or Saturday.

Let's have some action and now or there is going to be a big stampede on the village hall one of these nights.

This is from many citizens who are incensed about this situation.

We are getting up a signed petition to come later when it is ready.

Hospital

It appears that we have a very flourishing hospital association with a full set of officers, but no hospital and no indication as to where the funds for constructing one are coming from.

Under existing state law, a township can erect a hospital and can issue bonds up to 5% of its assessed value. Also, a township can levy taxes for the support of a hospital, even though the hospital is not within its boundaries. There is another law, permitting the formation of hospital districts, but it is not applicable to townships of over 500,000 population. It is conceivable that 2 of our more prosperous townships could each erect a hospital building at the boundary lines, which could be operated as a unit and supported by all of the townships involved.

However, it would be much simpler to have legislation enacted, authorizing the formation of a hospital district and the issuance of bonds for its construction. I am sure that Senator Bidwill and Representative Sprague would be glad to introduce the necessary legislation, which could be patterned after the Hospital District Law which is found in Chapter 23 of the Illinois Revised Statutes, Sections 163.30 to 163.53.

maps, he is one of the nation's most prominent educators and geographers.

He has the distinction of appearing in 6 editions of "Who's Who," including America, Midwest, Chicago, Commerce and Industry, Education, and Western Hemisphere.

Noted for his unique map projections, Mr. Denoyer has made trips all over the world. In 1953, he attended the Coronation of Queen Elizabeth.

As a boy in Wisconsin, he quit school to help support his ailing family and worked in a print shop until 16, when he earned $10 a month in Milwaukee as a combination drayman and salesman for a wholesale grocer.

He encountered Dickensque working conditions in a planing mill in 1893 when like others, he came to Chicago for the World's Fair and found himself caught in the wave of hard times which followed the exposition.

Later, he won a scholarship to Lawrence College, which first sent him to the Academy to complete his regular schooling. He was graduated from Oshkosh State Teachers college in 1899 and Lawrence College in 1901. He did advanced study at University of Chicago.

After teaching school for several years, he accepted an appointment as professor of geography and geology at Oshokosh State Teachers college.

During his teaching career, he acted as editorial advisor for several of the leading map publishing houses. In 1913, he resigned his professorship and became managing editor for A. J. Nystrom Co. in Chicago. During this association, he met Otto E. Geppert and with him founded Denoyer-Geppert in 1916.

Last year, the firm passed the $2,000,000 mark in sales.

Mr. Denoyer maintains a vigorous correspondence with the use of a 1911 Hammond typewriter which has 5 shifts, includes the Greek alphabet, and permits him to write in any language.

His home, located on a 116-acre farm northwest of Wheeling, is lined with rare and beautiful maps, many of which he made himself.

Member of the Methodist church for 68 years, he was a Sunday school teacher for more than 20.

Mr. Denoyer was first married in 1903, and his wife died in 1929. He later re-married, and his present wife, Mrs. Xenia Denoyer, is active in Girl Scout work. They observed their 25th wedding anniversary last month.

Prospective chess players may contact Mr. Denoyer at Wheeling 88. (FP

Should Consider Corn Crop Plans Carefully, Then Plant

With corn planting drawing near, farmers should give careful thought to their cropping plans from the standpoint of the 1955 corn allotment program. This advice was given today by Carl M. Bormet, of the local ASC committee.

Some time ago, continued Mr. Bormet producers on all known corn farms were issued official allotment notices. Only those farmers who compley with such allotments will be eligible for price support. It is, therefore, suggested that these notices be carefully checked for correctness and farm identity because any mistakes which are made now may affect this year's income. The price support rate for the county has not yet been announced but the minimum national support has been set at $1.58 per bushel, which is put four cents less than for 1954.

ANY PRODUCER interested in the corn crop on more than one farm either as owner or operator should be extremely cautious because the corn acreage on one farm may affecthis eligibility on all farms. In order to be eligible for price support on any given farm, the total corn acreage on all farms in the commerical area in which the producer is interested must be within the total of the allotments for all such farms. Even though this total requirement is met, eligibility will apply only to those farms on which there is compliance with the specific farm allotment.

Rather complicated situations often arise when a producer has a single interest in one farm and then is involved, along with other parties, or as a part of an unsettled estate, legal partnership or business enterprise, etc., on another farm. "Full details on these types of cases may be obtained at our office," said Mr. Bormet.

IT IS FURTHER advised farmers who desire to cooperate should try to make certain that their original plaintings are made within the allotment. However, in the event some error is made there is opportunity this year to reduce the acreage down to the allotment, provided such acreage is plowed or disked under, or is totally destroyded by causes beyond the farmer's control and provided, too that this takes place by August 1. Any situation of this nature should immediately be called to our attention. A second inspection will be required in such cases and a nominal fee will be charged.

Farmers should recognize, too, that for purposes of future programs, full credit will be given if the corn acreage is within 90 per cent of the allotment.

In view of this special reduction privilege, continued the chairman, every endeavor will be made to check farm acreages at an early date. To accomplish this big job, the full cooperation of all farmers will be required. We urge this cooperation and ask that someone be available to assist our reporter when he calls at the farm to determine the corn acreage. This, we are certain, will be to the advantage of our farmers as well as to us.

Moisture Good For Corn Crop

Moisture conditions for the corn crop are much more favorable now than they were a year ago. Then, nearly all Corn Belt reporting areas showed deficiencies of four to eight inches in over-winter rainfall. At present, most of DeKalb's 20 reporting stations indicate that subsoil moisture is normal or above. One exception is Marshall, Mo., where 1955 rainfall is reported as 1.6 in. below a year ago, when it was below normal.

The 1954's low subsoil moisture supply, plus extreme temperatures and low rainfall in July practically ruined the corn crop in the southern third of the Corn Belt; this year, conditions prior to planting are much more favorable.

A TREMENDOUS storm moved over all of the central and most of the southern states on the weekend of April 24, bringing 2 to 5 inches of rain over wide areas. This was a great boon to the recently planted oats crop, and much of the rain was absorbed into the subsoil for summer use of the corn crop. This rain was particularly beneficial in Iowa, where the winter had been rather dry.

Over wintering corn borer population in the northern half of Illinois, all of northern Iowa, except the extreme northeast, in southern Minnesota, southeastern South Dakota and northeastern Nebraska was just about double that of a year ago.

BRIGHT SPOT in this situation is that the warm, early season temperatures have speeded up borer development so that corn borer moths will be laying eggs before corn is big enough to attract them. Eggs will then be laid in oats or weeds where survival is low. However, any extremely early planted fields of corn may be hit quite hard, as moths like to lay eggs on the largest corn.

Corn planting has begun in a small way only in Missouri. In many other areas, rather frequent rains have slowed down seed bed preparation.

Silage

If you feed small-grain silage to dairy cows, you'll need to feed grain more heavily than usual to keep milk production up.

DOWN ON THE FARM

with Your Farm Adviser
CARL F. MEES

by JOH NH. BICKET

Maybe it would be a good thing if every egg a chicken laid said "handle with care" right on the shell. Your hen knows how to handle her eggs without signs. They don't drop them, they lay them down gently in straw lined nests. Poultrymen should also handle eggs carefully to maintain top quality and prevent breakage.

EGGS WILL BE clean if you provide clean quarters for your hens. There is no question that clean eggs are best, because any method of cleaning is certain to destroy some of the eggs' protective covering.

Eggs have a protective covering around the shell to prevent entry of foreign materials into the eggs. Care should be taken to prevent any damage to this covering when cleaning eggs. If the process of cleaning eggs becomes necessary, if the quantity is small, use a sandpaper buffer to clean them. If the quantity is large you may want to clean them by washing. D. J. Bray, poultry specialist, University of Illinois gives five pointers in the proper method of washing eggs.

1. Wash eggs right after you get them when the dirt and stains are easy to remove.

2. KEEP THE WATER heated to 110 to 120 degrees Fahrenheit. The eggs will expand a little with warm water, pushing bacteria from the shell pours.

3. Use a detergent sanitizer solution. Sanitizers kill bacteria both on the egg shell and in the water.

4. Change the water often. It's not so much how many eggs you clean, but how dirty they are that tells you how often to use a fsesh sanitizer-detergent solution.

5. Never wash eggs for more than three minutes.

YESTERDAY AFTERNOON I had an opportunity to visit a couple of our 4-H club leaders in the county. George Klein, leader of the Hanover Hawks had a very favorable report to make of his new club. He stated that since starting the new club this spring and after 3 or 4 meetings that he was surprised at the attitude and eagerness of these young people. He pointed out particularly a young man who was given the opportunity to give his first talk before the group. Mr. Klein said he helped the young man with his speech, by making an outline for his talk and after the talk had been given he felt as proud of the young man as the young man himself having received the benefits of a job well done.

I am sure this story could be repeated again and again through the county. Altogether I think it points out one of the many values that our young people receive from

LAW on the FARM

More farmers need to give some thought to the death tax. Each person has a $60,000 exemption before the federal state tax applies, but many Illinois farmers have assets higher than that.

The estage tax applies to all kinds of property, including farmlands, equipment and grains. This tax is a charge against the net estate of a decedent. The net estate is found by taking the fair market value of all the property and deducting expenses, debts and gifts made for charitable, religious or educational purposes.

WHEN YOU PLAN distribution of your property, remember (1) that the federal law assumes that all of the joint tenancy property belonged to a deceased joint tenant, (2) that gifts of property made within three years of death are included in the estate for tax purposes (unless it can be proved that the gift was not made in anticipation of death) and (3) that insurance proceeds are included in the estate if the deceased had title to the policy.

Also, remember that up to half of the estate is free from the federal estate tax if it is left to a surviving wife or husband. This is called the marital deduction. Thus, if the maximum marital deduction is used, a net estate valued at $120,000 may be transferred without a federal estate tax ($60,000 exemption plus $60,000 marital deduction.)

* * *

LIKE THE INCOME tax, the estate tax rate is progressive. At $80,000, the rate is 14 per cent; at $200,000 it is 30 per cent. The table on page 2 will give you an idea of the seriousness of the tax at different values (when the marital deduction is used, divide the value in two.)

Value of estate	Tax
$ 70,000	$ 500
100,000	4,800
200,000	32,700
500,000	126,500

A new provision in the estate tax law (passed in 1954) allows a credit for any previous estate tax paid on property which the deceased received within the past 10 years. The credit ranges from 100 per cent of the tax paid if property was received within two years of death to 20 per cent within 10 years.

Reduce Livestock Loss From Bloat

No one has a sure answer to the bloat problem. Products on the market that claim to prevent bloat have not yet been proved effective.

Dairymen can, however, take a number of precautions that may help to prevent serious losses, says Karl E. Gardner dairy scientist at the University of Illinois college of agriculture.

BLOAT OCCURS when a hungry cow eats too much green, wet, lush forage too fast. The cow actually fills her stomach so full that the gas exit through the esophagus or gullet is closed off, Gardner points out.

Obviously the way to prevent cows from eating so much that they may bloat is to see that they are not hungry when they first go on new pastures.

Legumes sometimes produce a foam or froth in the paunch that blocks off the gas exit. Dairymen who have trouble with bloat would do well to plan pastures that are not more than 50 per cent legume, because cows do no ordinanrily bloat on grass pastures.

WET PASTURES seem to increase the possibility of bloat. The reason is probably that the cow can eat the wet feed faster, although it may not be the complete explanation, says Gardner.

Keep a weather eye out when you first turn cows out on spring pastures, and watch them again when rains follow a relatively dry spell.

Preventive measures and treatments for bloat are explained in a publication available from the dairy science department, University of Illinois, Urbana.

Decry Attempt To Resume Rigid 90 Per Cent Of Parity

Illinois farmers are suffering from acreage controls and marketing quotas that go with high price supports because the land diverted under the control program is planted to feed grains that compete for the corn market, Otto Steffey, president of Illinois agricultural association, said.

"At present, we have a record supply of feed grains—barley, oats, rye, sorghum grains, and others," Steffey said. "This huge supply has been built up under the system of 90 per cent price supports in effect until the start of this year. Much of it has been produced on land diverted from the production of wheat, cotton, rice and other crops. For example, wheat acreage has been cut 30 per cent in the past three years and many of these acreas have been planted to feed grains that compete with corn.

"LARGE AMOUNT of these feed grains on hand has caused weakness in corn prices. For the market price of corn has averaged from 5 to 10 cents a bushel under prices of a year ago. And corn is the most improtant farm crop in Illinois. But under high price supports, Illinois farmers have their acreage of corn cut and also face competition with crops grown on diverted acres in other regions.

"These are reasons Illinois famrers should oppose H.R. 12, a bill which should restore 90 per cent of parity price supports on all basic farm crops," the IAA president said.

The bill would repeal portions of the agricultural act of 1954, which instituted a system of flexible price supports for farm products instead of rigid 90 per cent supports.

"HIGH SUPPORTS have put prices on some commodities so high they priced themselves out of the market," Steffey said. "This country has lost one-fourth of its world market since 1952, with the biggest export losses being in wheat, cotton and rice because they couldn't compete pricewise."

At the same time, Steffey said, the federal government has control of $7.5 billion worth of farm commodities under the program. But from 1947 to 1954, farm prices fell 25 per cent while high price supports, as proposed in H.R. 12, were in effect.

"The USDA recently announced that storage charges on the present surpluses will be about $1 million per day starting June 1," Steffey said. The IAA president suggested that some of this money might be spent trying to build a program that would put emphasis on soil conservation rather than be used for storing crops that present markets won't absorb. Such a program could be part of a flexible price support program, he said.

Swiss Breeders To Sponsor Dance

Canton One, Brown Swiss Cattle Breeders association will sponsor a barn dance on Friday, June 3, at the Blue Moon, west of Elgin on US 20. Plans for the dance were announced today by William Palmer, Huntley, president. Canton One includes Lake, McHenry, Boone, Cook, Du Page, Kane and De Kalb counties. The term "canton" derives from the name for counties in Switzerland.

Arrangements for the dance are under the direction of a committee headed by James Blonar, Pala-Barr farm, Barrington. Other members of the committee are Mrs. Paul Deutsch, Sycamore; O. J. Maina and Gene O'Brien, Woodstock; Lowell Oranger, Maple Park and Mrs. Oliver Wiese, Huntley. Mr. Blonar stated that tickets are now on sale and can be obtained from any of the above or from Annette Magnuson of Palatine, Ill.

Music by the popular "Hart Meldiers' 'and many valuable awards will be features of the affair. All proceeds will be used in furthering the Canton's Junior activities program which includes awards and prizes at local fairs and shows, assisting 4-H and FFA youngsters in obtaining dairy projects, and an annual Canton Junior show to be held in conjunction with the open show on June 22, at the Fox River Valley Livestock center in St. Charles.

Now's The Time To Set Up Farm Social Security

Now is the time for farm operators hiring farm workers to start setting up their social security records, according to the manager of the northwest district social security office at 4255 N. Milwaukee ave.

Small farm operators, with a total yearly payroll of $2500 or less will not need to make any social security reports until after the end of the year. However, their record keeping should begin with the day on which the first worker is hired.

FOR RECORDS, the farmer should get each worker's name and number from the worker's social security card and should keep an accurate record of all cash wages paid to each worker and the amount of social security tax withheld. This year, a farm hand will be covered by social security as soon as he is paid $100 in cash by the same farmer.

Farm operators who have hired help and who do not have employer identification numbers should get in touch with the local internal revenue office or the social security office immediately.

Cutting Time Is Important For Legume-Grass Silage

For best results in making legume-grass silage, hay crop forages should be cut at the right stage of development.

K. A. Kendall, dairy scientist at the University of Illinois college of agriculture, says legume-grass mixtures like bromegrass and alfalfa or orchard grass and clover make the best silage when the legumes are in the early-to-medium-bloom stage.

AT THIS TIME you can cut and chop the standing crop and put it into the silo. High moisture will be a problem if the crop is cut earlier, in the pre-bloom stage.

If you have to start cutting legumes earlier, Kendall recommends that you either wilt the crop from one to three hours, depending on the weather—and this means extra labor as well as reduced yield—or add 150 to 200 pounds of ground ear corn to each ton of chopped forage.

CORN ADDED to chopped grass-legume silage will help to preserve it by taking up excess moisture and will also add to the feeding value of the silage. Or, instead of corn, you can use molasses as a preservative at the rate of 50 to 60 pounds for each ton of silage.

Chop the grass-legume crop finely to help packing in the silo. Taking extra care to pack the silage well will pay off with a minimum of spoilage.

KEEP CUTTER knives sharp, and set them for the shortest length of cut. Keep the forage leveled off as you ensile it to permit even settling. This is particularly important in upright silos, Kendall says.

If the forage crops get too dry before you can get them into the silo, it's a good idea to add water to make the forage pack well and to prevent mold. Trench or surface silos should be built in a well-drained location.

Stewardship Sunday

ELEVENTH COMMANDMENT

Thou shalt inherit the holy earth as a faithful steward, conserving its resources and productivity from generation to generation. Thou shalt safeguard thy fields from soil erosion, thy living waters from drying up, thy forests from desolation, and protect thy hills from overgrazing by thy herds, so that thy descendants may have abundance forever. If any shall fail in this stewardship of the land thy fruitful fields shall become sterile stony ground and wasting gullies, and thy descendants shall decrease and live in poverty or be destroyed from off the face of the earth.

Centennial On TV

Beards and butter churns will be among the curios of a small town centennial celebration shown on the "Farmtown, U.S.A." television program Sunday, May 15, at 2 p.m.

Guests from Girard, farming community of 1,500 population in Macoupin county, will unfold the story of their town's first 100 years. The Girard centennial, scheduled for June 17-18, is typical of many such events taking place throughout the state each year.

Items 100 years old or older will be shown by residents of the community. Ted Lay, 29-year-old Girard farmer who is president of the centennial association, will demonstrate a hand-pulled, hand-pumped fire engine in use 125 years ago. (FM

Rural Youth To Meet Wednesday

North Cook rural youth will hold their regular monthly meeting at the farm bureau building, 201 N. Dunton, Arlington Heights, May 18 at 8:30 p.m.

In The Future

A new paint remover promises not only to soften old paint and varnish quickly, but to leave the surface ready for repainting . . . A auto license frame has a protective safety reflector to caution other vehicles running up from the rear . . . You can get a tension window screen with a 20-year guarantee on the springs that keep it in place . . . A sort of dehydrated salad dressing, with all the herbs and flavor bases packed dry in an envelope, comes in five popular combinations.

YOUR RURAL MAIL CARRIER--

A MAIL BOX MOOD

Behold me! The sorriest sight in all the land
With rusty coat, I drunkenly stand
Ashamed, neglected, in weathered paint
On a post, sagging beneath my weight.
Flaunting my neglect to all who pass by Saying, there is no pride in those who live nigh
They leave me here day after day
Not caring what the neighbors say.
Down my street, a little way
With head erect unbearably gay
In colors bright, and letters new
There is another Mail Box, too.
It stands alone, secure and serene
On new-set post, which does not lean
And flaunts its brightness against the sky
Making me so ashamed that I could die.
I wish my owner would take pity on me
And fix me nice for all to see,
Then I could stand with head-high pride
And be a credit to the countryside.

Rural Mailbox Improvement Week

The week beginning with the third Monday in May has been designated officially and permanently by the post office department as Rural Mailbox Improvement Week. In continuation of the valuable work in previous seasons to repair or improve the rural mailboxes of the nation, a vigorous campaign will be launched again this spring, to carry on this worthwhile project.

Here are a few pointers for RMI Week:

(1) See that posts are securely erected—are not leaning badly—and that box is fastened securely.

(2) Replace obsolete box if it is hard to get mail into it, or if it is hard to see into it for letters that you want mailed.

(3) Name should be painted on side of box which carrier approaches (or can be on front of box if several boxes are closely grouped together).

(4) It is a big help if several boxes are neatly and closely placed on a plank extending between two posts.

(5) Bottom of box should be 42 inches above roadway, and should be on an arm extending out away from the post, in such a manner that it can be easily reached, with all obstructions (including snow and parked cars) promptly removed.

(6) Fill ruts with crushed rock or gravel.

(7) Drive your own car up to your box. If you can easily reach your mail from behind the wheel of your car, reaching out the right hand side as the carrier is required to do, then the chances are that your box is pretty well located. But better yet, talk to your carrier about the proper location, and the correct setting.

(8) Your carrier serves this box 305 days every year. If it is correctly set, it lightens his work and saves him time so that he can more quickly serve other patrons farther along his route (and saving his time can save the Government money).

(9) This will be appreciated, for with the rapid development of housing on acreages, the work load of most rural carriers has more than doubled in the past few years.

(10) Your mailbox is the front door to your home. Since it is usually in front of your home, its neat appearance will add considerably to the neat appearance of your home. Ruts filled—box and post painted white—possibly a few flowers planted behind it.

4H CLUB

by JOHN H. BICKET...

There is nothing more rewarding than the planting of a seed and watching the wonders of nature performed in their growth or having an animal respond to your care.

Many young people in Cook county are reaping the harvest of this experience at this time. They are new 4-H club members going about their work of caring for their projects. If your son or daughter is interested in this new experience contact this office at 201 N. Dunton or the 4-H club leader in your community.

A DEMONSTRATION on "Better Sight Through Better Light," is available to 4-H clubs who have members enrolled in the county electrical project. The demonstration does a wonderful job in pointing out the proper requirements for good lighting.

Boys giving this demonstration in their local clubs will have fixtures available which are designed to do the job. It is needless to say that we have but one pair of eyes and we need to take care of them to the best of our ability.

ROY NICKOL will be giving this demonstration at the meeting of the Washington 4-H club Thursday evening.

Lynn Landmeier is planning to give the demonstration at the Elk Grove 4-H club meeting next week. There is a possibility that if your club has no members enrolled in this activitiy, a member that is enrolled might be willing to help other clubs out if they care to have this demonstration as a part of their program.

Carnival, Rally Start Lake County 4-H Summer Program

The annual rally and carnival of the 4-H clubs of Lake county will be held May 14 at 7:30 p.m. in the Brainard building of Libertyville-Freemont high schools.

Several hundred 4-H boys and girls will spend the evening square dancing and in other entertainment, including a penny carnival.

The event signals the opening of summer activities for the 4-H clubs.

Farm Group Spring Dance Is May 14

Annual spring dance of local 7, Cook county Truck Gardeners and Farmers association, will be held May 14 at Fireman's hall, Bensenville.

Leonard Holmberg is chairman for the affair which will feature the music of Howie's Orchestra. Everybody is welcome to attend.

Up And Doing Eighth Annual Banquet

Up and Doing 4-H club banquet was held May 6 at St. John Lutheran church school basement at 6:30 p.m. After-dinner speeches were given by Mrs. Hinkel, Mrs. Arthur Busse and Mrs. Edwin Deeke. Corsages were then presented to the junior leaders and a gift to the club's leader, Mrs. Deeke, and its former leader, Mrs. Busse.

Entertainment included skits, "No-mother Land," "Baptizing the Jones Family," and "It Must Have Been Something I Ate;" a flute solo by Laura Scharringhausen; accordion solos by Merrilee Moehling and Lu Ann Lacina and a Hawaiian guitar solo by Sharon Luczak.

Normal Female

A dairy cow will graze about eight hours a day and chew her cud another eight hours.

Plan 4-H Fair At Race Track Aug. 12-14

The 9th annual North Cook county 4-H club fair and festival will be held at the Arlington Park race track, August 12-13 and 14. The Fair board under the direction of L. W. Pohlman, president are in the process of working out plans for this event which annually attracts approximately 40,000 people.

The plans for this year's fair are much the same as they have been in the past with numerous changes in various areas for improvement.

Sewing Susies 4-H Club Takes Tour

Sewing Susies 4-H club, Arlington Heights, took a trip to the Mary Ann shop in Evanston May 9. Members saw many types of materials, patterns and styles. They will use this information as an aid in their clothing projects and also will receive credit on their records for this tour.

Next meeting will be held at the home of Nancy Mees, May 16.

Busy Fingers 4-H Meet May 4

The meeting of the Busy Fingers 4-H was held May 4, at Central school, Mt. Prospect. At this meeting Diana Kowal was elected treasurer and Madeline Newcomb was elected as health chairman.

Mrs. Allen gave a demonstration on measuring for baking. Project books were passed out titled, "You Learn to Bake." Refreshments were served.

Nation's Cattle Would Fill Train 28,000 Miles Long

A train covering 28,000 miles of track or long enough to stretch around the borders of the United States 2½ times would be required to haul all of the beef cattle, sheep and hogs in this country reports National Live Stock Producer, the nation's leading live stock magazine.

There were over 144 million meat animals on farms and ranches January 1—an average of 48 head per square mile. This total includes 58 million beef cattle, 31 million sheep and lambs and 55 million hogs and pigs.

IOWA RANKS first among the nation's live stock states in both total numbers of meat animals and number of head per square mile. There are 18 million meat animals in Iowa. That's 320 per square mile—nearly 7 times the national average. This state accounts for 12% of the nation's meat animal population.

Texas with 13 million head ranks second in numbers of all meat animals.

The midwestern states of Iowa, Illinois, Nebraska, Missouri, Indiana, Minnesota, South Dakota, Ohio and Kansas had 58% of the national total of January 1 of this year.

ILLINOIS RANKS second to Iowa in density of meat animal numbers with an average of 187 head per square mile. Other top states in this category are Indiana, 171 head; Ohio, 123; Missouri, 100; and Nebraska, 98.

Death Notices

IN MEMORIAM

Becker—Lilie Becker. In loving memory of our dear mother who passed away 2 years ago.
How often do we tread the path
That leads us to the grave,
Where rests the one we loved so well
But whom we could not save.
Long days, long nights, you bore your pain,
Waiting for cure, but all in vain.
God saw that you were suffering
And the hills were hard to climb,
So he closed your weary eyes
And whispered peace be thine.
Loving children and husband (*

CARD OF THANKS

My sincere thanks go to neighbors and friends and Rev. Glenn Gumm for their sympathy and kindness to me in my bereavement over the loss of my husband.

3 GOOD REASONS WHY RAINBOW IS BEST

Every Inch an active storehouse of Soft Water, It's FULLY AUTOMATIC

FULLY AUTOMATIC

$295

Plug this unit in the wall and your hard water problems are completely eliminated. Not even a switch or valve to touch. COMPLETELY automatic. Also semi-automatic units available.

In the Rainbow Automatic, the nuisance of regenerating has been entirely eliminated. A simple, dependable electric timer does this for you — while you are sleeping.

Regeneration occurs during the night once or oftener each week, depending on how much soft water is required and the use of a Rainbow Automatic is as convenient and trouble-free as an automatic water heater.

Needs salt only 2 to 3 times yearly. Softens—Filters — Removes Iron and Corrosive elements. This new type of regeneration is the greatest advancement in water softening since its discovery. Our jet action backwash method keeps tanks and zeolite clean and fresh for years.

A softener that requires attention is as old fashioned as a water heater that needs to be lit.

No other automatic softener approaches the Rainbow Automatic in simplicity and dependability. Old methods of regenerating have been discarded and our new and improved method takes over.

NO DOWN PAYMENT

Regeneration is NEVER forgotten or neglected. The savings are GREATER than can possibly be obtained with any non-automatic softener. Capacity up to 175,000 grains per week.
